Charlie grand opening

Charlie Ladies Wear, with stores throughout Ontario and over 50 years of bridal experience - proudly announce the Grand Opening of their new store in Oakville's Hopedale Mall.

At Charlie you will find a vast selection of daytime and daytime-into-evening dresses that will take you from your daytime activities into evening events. All sizes to fit every woman from teens to 70's. A comprehensive assortment cannot be found anywhere, except our sister stores in the Niagara and surrounding areas. No longer any need to travel to find your needs, we are now at your doorstep.

Featured is a large selection of wedding gowns for the brides of 1993/94.

Our "Touch of Class" collection priced regularly up to $2,600 will cost you only 1/2 price. All our gowns are the latest 1993/94 collection designer gowns. Heavily beac-ed, long cathedral trains and shorter chapel trains. Long sleeves and short. Some without trains for smaller weddings and some tea length.

Area supervisor Connie Sisti

The Bridesmaid collection is of the very latest fabrics, styles and colors, all at affordable prices. As well as mother of bride and groom dresses and those for the invited guests.

Charlie also has the best and largest selection of prom and graduation dresses. No need to run from store to store. You'll find it all at Charlie.

Fashions for the petite

Looking for that special petite outfit for your Christmas party?

Consider the new novelty "dressed up" vests in silk, organza and knits, trimmed with bugle beads, scrolled soutache ribbon detail and black velvet collars from Anne Klein II and Liz Claiborne. They go easily over white Poet's blouses or tuxedo front shirts and look wonderful when completed with dressy black bottoms. They even look fabulous when used to dress up jeans!

If you are looking for something very dressy, Scott McClintock from California offers 'off the shoulder' looks in black velvet, trimmed with printed gold lamé, as well as printed black velvet bolero jacket dresses.

Look for sheer georgette blouses from Anne Klein II and Studio J to be worn over gold camisoles and black bustiers, matching long full tafetta skirts in port wine or crystal pleated pants will either make the outfit very formal or add a certain elegance to that special cocktail party.

For the career woman going from work out to dinner, the Selina petite dress line offers wool crepe dresses in festive colours of red, emerald, raspberry and midnite purple.

(All of these fashions are available at Especially Petites in downtown Oakville).

IMAGE LIFTERS FOR FALL

Do you need to brighten your image, give yourself a lift? Why not consider an underestimated area, hair color. Product manufacturers and hairdressers combined have progressed enormously in this area for the '90s.

Firstly, let's talk about the differences in technique and product. The first stage of hair color is the temporary or semi-permanent color. These products wash out after a period of time with no damage or residue left in the hair and eventually washing out. You cannot make the hair lighter, only darker, or alter the tone.

Sebastian has come out with a brand new semi-permanent hair color Cello-Phanes Plus which is the first totally environmentally safe F.D.A. sanctioned professional hair color containing no ammonia or peroxide. Cellophanes Plus comprises of 19 soft to high fashion shades importing wonderful color, shine and condition, camouflaging up to 20% grey hair and lasting up to 40 washes.

For a long time, manufacturers have been working on what we call no lift hair color. These products will cover grey hair but also respect the natural pigment of the hair, therefore, they are unable to make hair lighter.

An unusual added advantage of this color is it may be done to hair immediately after a permanent wave, eliminating the problem of the lift which sometimes occurs due to a permanent wave.

Permanent hair color, the way we can totally alter someone's hair color to change it to whatever we wish. Permanent hair color contains both ammonia and peroxide and it does alter permanently the natural pigment.

Probably, one of the most popular methods

Hair by Bob-R-Shop

of hair coloring is highlights. Gone are the days of having a tight cap pulled on your head and then feeling like a pin cushion with strands of hair being pulled through with a crochet hook. Loreal has produced a product called Easi Meche which is a wonderful tool for hairdressers to weave highlights. The advantages of weave highlights are enormous, no pain, more than one color can be applied achieving more natural results, guaranteed application right to the roots, no problem with the regrowth, you do not keep on coloring hair that has been previously colored.

The staff at BOB-R-SHOP are all fully trained in all the above techniques and products. If you would like to experience the serenity of our salon, professionalism of our staff, and receive a free consultation, please call 338-6465 to make an appointment. 24-hour phone service is available.
