

NIKKI WESLEY / OAKVILLE BEAVER

FOR THE RECORD: Singer/songwriter Janice Moro leads a gospel choir of community members in rehearsal before recording her song Will You Stand? at the John Bell Chapel at Appleby College. The song is a thank you to politicians for last year's formal apology by the federal government to former students of native residential schools. The song will be on Moro's CD Sometimes, slated for release in October. A video of the recording session is available at www.janicemoro.com.

Art in the Park Aug. 3

The Oakville Art Society is presenting the 44th annual Art in the Park on the waterfront in Bronte on Aug. 3.

Featuring more than 150 artists and artisans from across the country, the 2008 event attracted thousands of people to the Bronte waterfront.

Every medium is represented, such as traditional oil, acrylic and watercolor paintings, glass, ceramics, textiles, photography, mixed media, sculptures and fine jewelry.

Art in the Park is alive with some artists demonstrating in their booths or at the Oakville Art Society demonstration area.

Visitors will have the chance to meet the artists and learn about the works they have created.

The event will be held at Heritage Waterfront Park, Bronte Road and Ontario Street. Admission costs $3 at the gate.
