

Powassan

News

By Dorothy Millar

POWASSAN: April is cancer campaign month. We can expect to see the volunteer callers who give so generously of their time to help this worthy cause.

The postponed blood donor clinic will be held Wednesday, April 22, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Powassan Junior Public School.

A good time was reported at the Chisholm pot-luck dinner and games night held in the United Church Hall on Saturday evening, March 28. Cribbage and 500 were played.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Carmel Ulrich, whose father Mr. Emmett Kelly of Smith's Falls died recently.

Sincere sympathy, (Continued on page 31) valuables with significant numbers, keeping wallets in safe place, etc.

Peggy Brushey conducted the business meeting. Members were reminded of the zone rally in the Hall on April 24, opening at 9:00 a.m. The social committee was reminded of its responsibility to provide the noon lunch. April 9, (Thursday) is the date for nurses' clinic, with the foot clinic booked for Wednesday, April 15. Euchre will be played Thursday, April 9, with Maundy Thursday, April 16 being optional. An invitation to visit the Happy Gang in Sundridge on Saturday, May 9th was read and accepted.

The family of Audrey and Jack Yates celebrated their parent's 50th wedding anniversary on March 25th. Home for the occasion were Jacqueline and John Christie, and children Robyn and Tyler of Scarborough, Gary and Susan Yates, children Robert, Karen and Christopher of Owen Sound, Karen and Richard Armstrong, children Blake and Lauren of Ottawa, Elizabeth and Jim Giancola of Richmond Hill. As well as enjoying a dinner at Dragons, North Bay, a family portrait and numerous gifts were received. We join in offering our best wishes and congratulations to Jack and Audrey.

also to the Budreau family who lost a loving wife and mother last week. Services for Dorothy Budreau were held Friday morning in St. Joseph's Church.

Jim and Shirley Moore are holidaying in Florida.

Weekend visitors of Margaret Graff and D. Millar included Doug and Jeanne Goodhand, daughter Alison and friend of Norwood and Patricia and Jeff Stephenson of Thornhill.

O.P.P. officers Norman Webb and Debbie Phillips were guest speakers at the regular meeting on Thursday evening of the Golden Sunshine Club. Following introductions by vice-president Peggy Brushey, the officers gave the members some practical instructions in basic community policing. Police phone numbers should be kept convenient! As well as accepting responsibility for one's own safety, members should be alert to any signs of law-breaking in the area.

Other aspects of vulnerability were touched upon by Constables Webb and Phillips. Such well known, but not always followed safety rules, as locking doors, being aware of scam artists, protecting

(Cont'd on Page 31)

Osborne with Bruce Brooks, Joe Brushey and Margaret Brown. Fourth place went to Etta Young's team with Larry Froud, Gerald Phillips, and Marie Young. In fifth place was Elsie Thompson with Fred Boychuk, Jack Yates and Monica Chivers. Placing sixth was Madeleine Weiler with John Morkunas, Charles Bennison and Mildred Harwood. In seventh place was Sylvia Langford with team members Tony Van Mierlo, Bernard Gallagher and Mary Everest. Placing 8th was Peggy Brushey with Ron Young, Bruce Carmichael and May Munro, and in 9th place was Loretta VanMierlo, and team members Alf Everest, Leo Chivers and Dorothy Bennison. Tenth was Barb Morkunas with Harold Whitehead, Mick Cox and Audrey Yates. All reported a wonderful day and a delicious pot-luck supper. Prizes were given out after the dinner and good-byes were said.

Lois Farley won top points as the bridge club met Friday afternoon at Gwen Anderson's home in Chisholm. Subbing for Marie Young and Marion Levely were Lois and Margaret McCormick. The next get-together is at Marie Young's home.

A musical treat is in store for area music lovers as the North Bay Choral Society presents "Evening in..."

Photo by Wi

SCIENCE FAIR WINNERS: These students emerged winners of the annual science fair at Almaguin Highlands Secondary School last week. The school held its fair featuring a number of exhibits that centred around the environment. In photo are the winners who will now go on to the district senior fair at Evergreen Heights

Education Centre in Emsdale next Tuesday, April 10, left, Lucy Emmott, Erin Ramsay, Amanda Lee, Erin Kathy Cullingham, Erin Barton, Melanie Kupka, left, I. Miller, Kathy Kemp, Charity Scarrow, Mai Berger, Melanie McCreary, Alanna Greib.

POWASSAN'S TOP SKATERS: Powassan Figure Skating Club has to be proud of, with a number of its skaters coming home recent competitions with gold and silver medals. The top skaters from the club are shown proudly displaying their trophies and numerous awards. From left in photo, Powassan Figure Skating Club's top competitors are: front row - Lauren

Passmore, Christina Brown, Rene Gauthier, Meagan Burns and Dianna Heath; back row - Stephanie Thompson, Jo-Ellen Burns, Kym Dargie, Donna-Lynne Burns, Leigh-Ann Burns, and Jenni Burns. Missing from photo are Kim Chayer, Heather Hickman, Shannon McLeod, Kayla Tennant and Sheena Walsh.

Photo by Nancy Bar