

New staff at library

The Petawawa Village and Township Union Library would like to welcome Sylvia Davydiuk, Carol Goldsmith and Debbie Trautrim to the staff.

Davydiuk and Goldsmith are permanent employees of the library and have experience working in libraries in North Bay and Calgary respectively.

Trautrim is the library's summer student. She will be co-ordinating the Summer Reading Program. She is currently enroled at Queen's University.

The library staff would also like to bid Pat Pollard farewell. After more than 10 years of employment with the Petawawa library she is moving to Vancouver BC.

The staff is sorry to see her go, but wishes her happiness and good fortune in her new venture.

Congratulations also go out to Jean Risto who will be the new chief librarian.
