DID A FINE JOB

The Petawawa Union Library had an amnesty period recently for all people who had overdue books. However instead of collecting money library officials took food which was donated to the St. Joseph's Food Bank. Jean Risto, right, presented the food and a $50 cash donation to Marj McGee.

(Observer Photo)