

Portry.
JEALOUSY ON THEY LEFT HIM ALONE IN HIS GLORY!
None had had his foot—not a guinea or note;
And he look'd confoundedly flurried, As he bolted away without paying his shot,
And the landlady after him hurried.
We saw him again at the dead of night, When home from the club returning;
We hegg'd the doctor beneath the light Of the gas-lamps brilliantly burning.
All bare and exposed to the midnight dews, Reckless he'd like a gentleman taking a snooze,
And he look'd like a gentleman taking a snooze, With his Marshall cloak around him.
The doctor's as drunk as the devil, we said,
And we managed a shifter to borrow;
We raised him, and sigh'd at the thought that his head,
Would dreadfully ache on the morrow.
We bore him home, and we put him to bed,
And we told his wife and daughter, To give him next morning a couple of red-herings, with soda water.
Loudly they talk'd of his money that he gone And his lady began to upbraid him; But little he reck'd,—so they let him sure on 'Neath the counterpane—just as we laid him.
We took'd him in, and had hardly done, When beneath the window calling, We heard the rough voice of a son-of-a-gun Of a policeman 'One o'clock' bawling.
Shortly and badly we all walk'd down From his room in the uppermost story;
A night-light we placed on the cold hearth-stone,
And we left him alone in his glory.

Miscellaneous.

'You can't do that again,' said the pig,
When the boy cut off its tail.
A writer on ornithology inquires what kind of eagles fly highest? We don't know but unquestionably golden eagles fly fastest.
A young lady out West is changed with putting on airs because she refused to go to a ball barefoot.
Fops who, in New-York, would not associate with their foot-makers, in Newport are seldom seen except in company with a 'tobler.'
Life is life, and pleasure is pleasure; and he who can walk through life without looking like a prayer-meeting, or the skeleton of a sermon is happier than others.
In a small party, the subject turning on matrimony, a lady said to her sister, 'I wonder, my dear, you have never made a match; I think you want the brimstone?' To which she replied, 'No not the brimstone—only the spark.'

'Charles,' said a young lady to her beau, 'what is the cause of the market-house bell ringing so?' 'Well,' said the beau, quite solemnly, 'if I were to express an opinion, I should give it as my deliberate conviction that somebody is pulling the rope?'

KE PUZZLED.—Ike came home from school very much agitated because he couldn't understand the principles of Allegation as laid down in Greenleaf.
'There, dear,' said Mrs. Partington, 'don't fret about it; you must tell your teacher that you ain't no allegator, and I know he'll relinquish you.' The lad was comforted accordingly.

NO TIME TO HESITATE.—An Independent minister, as much distinguished for his piety, dined one day with the senior deacon of his Church. The deacon, who was in the habit of asking blessings of a most wearisome length, was particularly prolix, and paused to gain a new supply of breath and words. The instant he stopped the minister sat down and commenced rattling his knife and fork. The worthy deacon, looking down exclaimed—'Doctor! doctor! I'm not through yet; I only hesitated.' 'Hesitated?' replied the doctor; 'it's no time to hesitate when the turkey's getting cold.'

A STRONG JOKE.—The other day an Irishman, late from Erin's fair turf, while at work in a stone quarry near this city, found a skunk under a flat stone which he was raising. Catching a glimpse of the animal, he stopped lifting, called to a companion to hold the stone while he got the kitten, as he called it, out, and not kill the poor thing. Jamie came, held up the stone, while Patrick got down on his knees, reached his hand under and pulled out the animal. Handling it a little to rough for ordinary occasions, he all of a sudden let go, sprang up, with one hand on his nose, and sang—'Howdy Mithir of—what has that cat bin eating?'—Milwaukee News.

ASTONISHING RESULT.—In Cleveland, recently, while a number of deck hands were engaged in placing a large quantity of lincod oil in the hold of the steamer Iron city, something gave way, and a hog-head fell far and square on the head of a stalwart darkey who was at work in the hold. The height from which the hog-head fell was some six feet, and it ended about so, that one of the heads struck him.
A wild though smothered yell came up from the hold, and the other darkeys, turning pale as fidelity to parents would permit, rushed down to gather up the mangled remains of their comrade. Imagine their surprise on seeing the hoghead standing and the frightened and somewhat lacerated countenance of the negro protruding through the upper head! His admirable cranial had driven through both heads of the hoghead without further injury than a few cuts and a very 'bad scare.' When the hoghead had been cleared away, he emerged the grasiest nigger in America. He philosophically remarked 'Gee, amighty, guess dis ere darkey don't want any more oil on his head. He was to work the same afternoo.'

matter of surprise that the numerous body of

DR. MORSE'S
Indian Root Pills.
DR. MORSE, the inventor of Morse's Indian Root Pills, has spent the greater portion of his life in traveling, having visited Europe, Asia and Africa, as well as North America.
He has spent three years among the Indians of Western Canada—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr.
Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—best of all out-purging, health life depended upon this vital fluid.

scale, will be published in the best style of local map making.
As soon as convenient, after an improvement in the times shall warrant bringing it out, it will be furnished to subscribers on canvases, handsomely colored, varnished and mounted.
GEO. TREMAINE.
Toronto, 1859.

PROSPECTUS
OF A
VALUABLE LOGAL MAP
AND DIRECTORY.
THE Subscriber proposes to publish, on a large scale, a Descriptive Map of the wealthy and populous County of York, exhibiting the Harbors, Rivers, Railways, the projected Georgian Bay Ship Canal, Mill Streams, Mills, Manufactories, Queen's Highways, Macadamized, Plank and Gravel Roads, the City, Towns, Villages, &c.; the location of the Township, Halfe, Counties, Concessions, Side-lines, Farm and Wild Lands, with generally Owners Names.
The Names of all subscribers, Resident Proprietors of Farms, will be neatly engraved in lower case Roman letters on their properties, and the location of their residences shown.
The names of subscribers in the City, Towns and Villages will be published also, if furnished the names, the life profession, trade, &c. of each, thus constituting, not only a most useful and beautiful Map, but a very complete Rural, Professional and Business Directory combined.
Should this important and expensive undertaking meet with good encouragement the
