

Poetry.
THE YANKEE LOVER'S SOLOQUY.
As this as a natchet I've grown,
And poor as Job's turkey, by golly;
I stand like a scarecrow, alone,
Sad victim of love's melancholy.
I feel most confoundedly blue,
Life's rose is turned to a thistle;
My sweetheart has turned out unkind,
And asked me as sweet as a whistle.
Though lively and keen as a rat,
And playful as any young kitten,
She has got the sharp claws of a cat,
And has showed 'em to me thro' the mitten.
Of our village girls she's the belle,
And plump as a partridge she grows;
Her lips for two cherries would sell—
Her cheeks are as red as the rose!
Like two bran new dollars her eyes,
Her nose is turned nose or than wax,
Her bosom with Venuses vies,
Her hair—it is finer than flax,
I courted her 'day after day,
In the hope her affections to win,
But my trouble is all thrown away—
Like a fool I have been taken in.
I am laughed at by all of our folks—
They expected a wedding to follow,
She has turned out a tartarion hawk,
Her heart, like a pumpkin, is hollow!
As this as a bean pole I grow,
And crabbled and cross as a bear,
My heart—it is love cracked—I know—
I shall lie down and die in despair!

Miscellaneous.
Justice is certainly an odd fish—she has only a single pair of scales.
It is a good rule always to back your friends and face your enemies.
A frequenter of public dinners complains of the overwhelming quantity of dry toast.
What singing bird is not pleasant at sea? A night-in-gale.
Love can excuse anything except meanness; but meanness kills love, and cripples even natural affection.
Slenderers, issuing from red and beautiful lips, are like foul spiders crawling from the blushing face of a rose.
The latest Irish ball we read of is the case of an Irish gentleman who, in order to raise the wind whereby to relieve himself from pecuniary embarrassment, got his life insured for a large amount and then drowned himself.
A long cane.—A traveller, among other narrations of wonders of foreign parts, declared he knew a cane a mile long. The company looked incredulous, and it was evident they were not prepared to swallow it, even if it should have been a sugar cane. 'Pray what kind of a cane was it?' asked a gentleman, sneeringly. 'It was a hurricane,' replied the traveller.
Wealth is not acquired, as many persons suppose, by fortunate speculations and splendid enterprise, but by the daily practice of industry, frugality, and economy. He who relies upon these means will rarely be found destitute, and whosoever relies upon any other will generally become bankrupt.
Why is Oliver Wendell Holmes like a whale? Dye give it up? Because he's the biggest fish in the Atlantic (Magazine).

LEAP YEAR.
Come, let us nerve our bashful hearts,
And quell each timid doubt,
And raise our drooping hopes, and smooth,
Our wrinkled features out;
And write thereon in letters plain,
That those who read who run—
Proposals thankfully received
Till eighteen sixty-one.—Singleman.
Misprints will present themselves in other columns besides those of newspaper. The author of a temperance novel who wrote 'Drunkness is Jolly,' was horrified to read—by an error of the printer, which also escaped the almost Argus-eyed proof-reader (2)—'Drunkness is Jolly.'
The boy couldn't help kissing her—he had it in him!
'Who gave that kiss?' the tracher cried;
'Twas Henry Hall,' John Jones replied.
'Come here to me,' 'old Switchman said,
And solemnly he shook his head.
'What evil genius prompted you
So rude a thing in school to do?'
Said Henry; 'I can hardly say,
Just how it happened, any way.
To do a sun she whispered me;
And round my face her curls, you see—
That is, her cheek—and I—and I—
Just kissed her, but I don't know why.'
A man driving a number of cattle to Boston, one of his cows went into a barnyard, where there stood a young lad. The driver calls to the boy:
'Stop that cow, my lad; stop that cow.'
'I'm no constable, sir.'
'Turn her, then.'
'She is right side out now, sir.'
'Well, speak to her, then.'
The boy took off his hat and very handsomely addressed the cow with:
'Your servant, madam.'
The driver rode into the yard and drove the cow out himself.
Laconic and Pithy.—The late Mr. Samuel Rogers used to quote a brief invitation to a lady and her answer:—
'Will you come to breakfast to-morrow, S. R.' Answer—'Would I? C. D.' The following is as good in its way:—
At a meeting in aid of the proposed Art Gallery at Manchester, Mr. Thomas Fairbairn read the following from a friend, whose name he did not disclose:
'My dear Tom,—I have read your letter, and I am going to do it. Put me down £1,000 for the honor and glory of my native town.'

The treatment they adopt is the result of upwards of 30 years' extensive and successful practice in London. The most inveterate symptoms of Disease eradicated in eight or nine days, and cases of a slight nature in two or three days at a very moderate expense.—The cure effected without confinement or hindrance from business.
Young Men—Take Particular Notice.
There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood, and which, if not reformed by them in their youth, will beget serious and permanent constitutional diseases, and give rise to a series of protracted, tedious, and devastating affections. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find themselves system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable feelings, and vague fears in the mind.
A Most Scientific Invention.
An instrument for the cure of General Debility, or more properly known as Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, &c., which are permanently cured in from 15 to 20 days by the use of this instrument, when used conjointly with medicine.
New Remedies and Quick Cures.
Dr. AMOS & SON take pleasure in announcing that they have invented a most important instrument for the cure of the above diseases. It has been subjected to a test by the most eminent physicians in London, Paris, Philadelphia and New York. It has been declared the only useful instrument ever yet invented for the cure of Seminal Weakness, or any disease of the genital organs, caused by the secret habits of youth.
Dr. Amos & Son, in order to satisfy the most skeptical as to the merits of these instruments, pledge themselves, that in any instance where they may prove unsatisfactory after a fair trial, the money will be refunded by returning the instrument in good order.
Persons wishing the above useful instrument will observe, that the price, with the accompanying directions, securely packed and sent by mail or express, is ten dollars.
Beware of Imposition.
Beware of empirics and itinerant self-styled professors, who ATTEMPT CURES, but never succeed.
Dr. Amos & Son have for a long series of years been engaged in an extensive practice in the treatment of these delicate complaints, and are the only legally qualified Physicians who now advertise to cure certain complaints, or from whom genuine European remedies can be obtained.
Persons in any PART OF THE WORLD may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct detail of their cases, with a remittance for Medicines, &c., which will be returned with the utmost dispatch and secure from observation.
