

Poetry.

THE EVILS OF INTemperance.

Intemperance is an evil now,
Prevailing in our land,
Which if we stand out firm against,
It surely shall not stand.
King Alcohol has slain its scores,
Yea hundreds we may say;
For many victims it has got,
Who drank their life away.
It fills our land with basest crimes;
It fills our streets with poor;
Our prison-houses, they are made
For drunkards quite secure.
Its ravages are daily seen,
And felt throughout our land;
But still we hope to conquer it—
"Good Templars," keep your stand.
Intemperance debases man
In every human form;
It brings him lower than the beast,
And weaker than a worm.
It sends to misery many a son,
And daughter of our race,
Half starved and naked we behold
Them living in disgrace.
The influence of this cursed drink
Is felt from shore to shore;
Its blighting withering blasts are felt
Throughout our earth all o'er.
Though strenuous efforts are put forth,
This curse now to dothrone;
But still its evils yet are seen,
And felt by many a one.
There's many a homeless, friendless child,
Now wandering in the street;
Who once had homes and friends so dear,
But now no friends to greet.
It causes many a cheerless night;
To the fond wife at home;
The husband now a drinker is,
And given much to roam.
Intemperance is deceiving too,
It makes you think you're strong;
It stimulates you for a while,
But weakens you are long.
In days of yore, when first 'twas used,
'Twas as a medicine made;
But as a beverage now it's used;
For which great sums are paid.
Good Templars! then be faithful still,
Oh! raise the banner high;
Do all you can for candidates!
You'll triumph by-and-by.

Miscellaneous.

An Irish Judge said, when addressing a prisoner, "You are to be hanged, and I hope it will prove a warning to you."

A passenger describes Aspinwall as a very lively place, the business being cock fighting and nigger fandangoes.

A wise man will desire no more than he can get justly, use soberly, distribute cheerfully, and leave contentedly.

A Yankee Captain was caught in the jaws of a whale, but was finally rescued badly wounded. On being asked what he thought while in that situation, he replied, "I thought he would make about forty barrels."

An unfortunate married man was very ill used by his Xantippe—he was even treated with an occasional thrashing. His friends rallied him upon this, and at last spurred him on to declare that he would make an effort to be master. One day, not long after, his better-half was so furious that he found himself compelled to seek shelter under the table. Just at this moment the voice of his friends were heard in the passage.
"Come out—come!" cried the wife, fearful of an exposure.
"No—no!" cried the husband, in triumph; "come out, indeed—not I. I'll show for once that I am master!"

Faddy's Difficulty.—At a crowded lecture on Bloomerism, the other evening, a young lady, standing at the door, was addressed by an honest Hibernian, who was in attendance on the occasion, with "Indade, miss, I should be glad to give you a sate, but all the empty ones are all full."

Leap Year Sentiment.—At a public "Tea-party," recently held in one of our country towns, where "sentiments" were in order, a timid bachelor was bold enough to remind the ladies that leap-year was upon them, by offering the following:—
Three long weary years have I waited for this;
Now if you'll pop the question I'll surely say yes.

To which the lady promptly responded as follows:—
The man without courage to do his own wooing;
May do his own washing, and 'baking, and sewing.
'The bachelor looked despondent.

Shuffle and cut.—At a ball one evening a plain country gentleman had engaged a pretty coquette for the next dance, but a gallant Captain coming along, persuaded the young lady to abandon her first engagement in favor of himself. The other, overhearing all that had passed, moved to a card table, and sat down to a game of whist. The Captain, in a few minutes afterwards, stepped up to the young lady to excuse himself, as he was engaged to another that he had forgotten. The young lady, much chagrined, approached the whist-table in hopes to secure her first partner, and said—"I believe, sir, it is time to take our places." The old fashioned suitor, in the act of dividing the pack for the next dealer, courteously replied—"No, madam, I mean to keep my place. When ladies shuffle, I cut."

NEW TREATMENT.

Buffalo Medical Dispensary.
ESTABLISHED FOR THE CURE OF DEEP-SEATED GENERAL DEBILITY, FEVER AND AGUE, SCROFULA, OLD WOUNDS, GREAT IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, SALT RHEUM, PRITZ, GOUT, GRAVEL, RHEUMATISM, DEBILITY, INFERMITY OF YOUTH AND OLD AGE, &c.
No Mercury Used.
DR. AMOS & SON, Corner of Main and Quay Streets, Buffalo, New York. are the only Physicians in the State who are members of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. May be consulted from 8 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, on every state and symptom of disease.
The treatment they adopt is the result of upwards of 30 years' extensive and successful practice in London. The most inveterate symptoms of Disease eradicated in eight or nine days, and cases of a slight nature in two or three days at a very moderate expense.—The cure effected without confinement or hindrance from business.

Young Men—Take Particular Notice.

There is an evil habit, sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up by them to manhood, and which, if not reformed by them in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise in a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating afflictions. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, and strange and unaccountable feelings, and vague fears in the mind.

A Most Scientific Invention.

An instrument for the cure of General Debility, or more properly known as Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, &c., which are permanently cured in from 15 to 20 days by the use of this instrument, when used conjointly with medicines.
New Remedies and Quick Cures.
Dr. AMOS & SON take pleasure in announcing that they have invented a most important instrument for the cure of the above diseases. It has been subjected to a test by the most eminent physicians in London, Paris, Philadelphia and New York. It has been declared the only useful instrument ever yet invented for the cure of Seminal Weakness, or any disease of the genital organs, caused by the secret habits of youth.

Dr. AMOS & SON, in order to satisfy the most skeptical as to the merits of this instrument, pledge themselves that in any instance where they may prove unsatisfactory after a fair trial, the money will be refunded by returning the instrument in good order.
Persons wishing the above useful instrument will observe that the price, with the accompanying directions, securely packed and sent by mail or express, is ten dollars.

Beware of Imposition.

Beware of empirics and ignorant self-cured professors, who attempt cures, but never succeed.
Dr. AMOS & SON have for a long series of years been engaged in an extensive practice in the treatment of the delicate complaints, and are the only legally qualified Physicians who now advertise to cure certain complaints, or from whom genuine European remedies can be obtained.

Persons in ANY PART OF THE WORLD may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct detail of their cases, with a remittance for Medicine, &c., which will be returned with the utmost dispatch and secure from observation.
Address: Dr. AMOS & SON, corner Main and Quay streets, Buffalo, N. Y. 46-11
