

passers by; had you seen that old man shake his stick over your little pet's cranium and ask the little game-cock to free him of the law in order that he (the old man) might chastise him as he richly deserved; and, oh! but had you seen how your little friend blanched, trembled, and slunked away at the symptoms of danger. Then was the time to have seen him in his natural element,—wantonly insulting and provoking an old man; using loud and boisterous oaths, and when richly merited chastisement was approaching he suddenly cooled down and moved off! Had you seen, then afterwards in the bar-room (the said little man doing his best to make up with the old man, who, however, nobly refused to do so) hobnobbing together with strong stimulants, and reeling home in the evening. Had you seen all this, we candidly admit we believe you would still find an excuse to support your candidate. But we must protest against it being done for the good of the Temperance cause. But this little swearing, drunken game-cock also professed to be a strict religiousist and with bible and prayer book, may be seen every Sabbath with demure and hypocritical countenance going to his place of worship, where a faithful God-fearing minister earnestly and sincerely warns his hearers of the yawning abyss that is open for the drunkard and the profane. The pseudo Temperance candidate is supported in flank by two zealous youths who proclaim the Temperance candidate "the smartest man in the township of Vaughan," and why? because this valiant (!) hero made a back log of the father of one of them by throwing him into the bar-room fire at Dingham's Tavern, and beat the aged parent of another in Nicholl's Tavern, and yet had the daring impudence, at Maple, to wrongfully and maliciously charge the esteemed Trustees of our Grammar School, because they would not yield to his demand, and, without proof, discharge a teacher, said by this model Christian and Temperance man to be guilty of a crime into which he (Candidate No. 4.) habitually falls.

In conclusion, we would only say that Mr. Edward Sheppard is the really popular candidate; and, although he does not pretend to be a "Teetotaler," he is decidedly a Temperance man—temperate in his habits, temperate in his language, courteous to every body, and not an ambitious office seeker. He has consented to run for the Council at the earnest solicitation of the electors of the Ward. Let the watchword be "Sheppard! and no Surrender."

VAUGHAN.
December 31, 1860.

REV. SAMUEL JOHNSON, M. A.
(Communicated.)

It affords us infinite pleasure, to copy the following article, headed "Testimonial," from the columns of the "British Standard," of Perth; our readers will rejoice with us to find that our former Grammar School Teacher is enjoying the popularity his talents as a first-rate Classical and Mathematical Teacher, so eminently deserves,—and were it not for the wretched malignity of two creatures in our village, we would not have to be at this time deploring the state of the Classics and Mathematics in our Grammar School here;—but Mr. Johnson was a gentleman, in every sense of the word, and he did not choose to remain in charge of a school where even two persons (however obscure) could be found in the community who did not treat him as such. We think, however, that the Board of Trustees here have amply satisfied Mr. Johnson that there was no sympathy with the two unfortunate individuals referred to,—and we do hope that if Mr. Johnson should ever think of changing, the Board of Trustees here will endeavour to secure his services again,—and we suggest to the "Smiths Falls" folk to use him well while they have him,—for we would be glad to get him back here, and will if we can.

TESTIMONIAL.

"The Pupils of the Grammar School at Smith's Falls, deposited on the Head Master's desk, a neatly arranged parcel, which was intended to convey an agreeable surprise. When opened the parcel contained a richly embroidered dressing gown and the following address:—

To the Rev. Samuel Johnson, M. A., Principal of the United Grammar and Common Schools of the Village of Smith's Falls.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The pupils of the Grammar School Department being desirous of testifying their respect and esteem for you as their Teacher; and their gratitude for the kind and unremitting attention you have bestowed upon them in their studies during the time they have been under your tuition, beg you will accept the accompanying parcel, as a small yet substantial token of that respect.

"They would at the same time express the hope that the same friendly feeling which now animates them may long continue to exist between you and them, in the relation of teacher and pupils. Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year,

We are,
Rev. and dear Sir,
Yours respectfully,
Rodney H. Seely, Margt. McGilvery,

James L. Burritt, Jane A. Taylor,
James M. Clark, Annie Gould,
On behalf of the pupils of the said school.

Smith's Falls, Dec. 19, 1860.

The above is a very pleasing incident. It is at all times gratifying to see that the exertions of a teacher are appreciated by his scholars; and the expressions of regard and affection recorded above, reflects credit upon both scholars and teacher. We may also remark that Mr. Johnson is one every way worthy of the esteem and confidence which he seems to have inspired. He is an accomplished scholar, and the Smith's Falls Grammar School is fortunate in having secured his services.

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

The Secretary of the Treasury has refused to accept any of the bids for the five million loan, which demanded more than twelve per cent. interest, thus less than two millions are accepted, an amount about sufficient, it is said, to pay the interest on the public debt due on the 1st of January.

As it was never stipulated or agreed by the President that the troops should be withdrawn from the forts around Charleston Harbor, the Administration does not consider it is under obligation to do so. As to the request of the South Carolina Commissioners for the restoration of the military states this is considered by the larger portion of the Cabinet as impossible. Secretaries Floyd, Thompson and Thomas, who hold the Constitutional right of secession, were separated on the South Carolina question from the Cabinet associates.

There was no positive decision at the meeting to-day, although the prospect is certainly not favorable to the Commissioners, and this statement is strengthened by the fact that to-day, Secretary Floyd resigned his office.

It is said that Secretary Thompson would also have resigned, were it not that the investigation pending, concerning the affairs of the Interior Department, in connection with the abduction of the Indian Trust funds—an investigation which he asked for the vindication of his own honor and integrity.

The report prevails that Secretary Thompson resigned, but this results from his decision as to whether he shall remain in the Cabinet, and his generally believed earnest sympathy with Secretary Floyd.

The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs the following:—

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The Cabinet has just adjourned, after a protracted session of six hours. The affairs at Charleston was the subject under consideration. Secretary Floyd stated to the President, in writing, that unless Major Anderson was withdrawn from Fort Sumpter, he could not remain in the Cabinet. Secretaries Thompson and Thomas were understood to entertain the same views, but the events of to-day changed their minds somewhat. The President determined, after full deliberation, not to withdraw Major Anderson, and Mr. Floyd's resignation was therefore accepted.

Among the persons named as Mr. Floyd's successor is Benjamin F. Eaton, of Massachusetts, who has been in confidential consultation with the President for several days. A serious division exists in the Cabinet, but a break up may at almost any hour be anticipated. Recent and highly important intelligence from the South, by the government, may precipitate the event.

The Secretary of the Treasury has just received a despatch from Charleston, stating that the revenue cutter, in the port of Charleston, had been seized by the authorities, and that the captain, who is a native of Charleston, has resigned. The intelligence was immediately communicated to the Cabinet.

The Navy Department, at 2 o'clock, received a despatch from Lt. Jas. P. Foster, commanding the slave Bontia, which was carried into Charleston, stating that his prisoner, the captain of the slave had been taken before a State Judge by a writ of habeas corpus. That the Judge remanded the prisoner to his custody, on the ground that he had no jurisdiction, and that on his way to the Bontia with the prisoner, he had been taken by force from his custody, by a mob.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OVER 2000 IN ONE WEEK.

Dr. McKenzie.

Sir, Your DEADSHOT WORM CANDY surpasses any Worm Medicine that I have ever seen. For the week ending Saturday, Nov. 3, 1860, I sold Three Thousand Three Hundred and Twelve Sticks of your Worm Candy. I doubt very much if the sales of all other medicines combined would amount to one-tenth as much, in Canada West. It is so powerful in its action, that I have seen it cure the most obstinate Worms, (not saying anything about Vermifuges). Children suppose it a common candy-suck, and as there is no other medicine required with it it is very easily administered. I have inquired of parents who gave it to their children, of the results. Their answer is invariably the same. It is the best they ever used.

Yours truly,
A. E. TAYLOR,
Agent,
Brockville.

Sold by all Druggists and Medicine Dealers for 15 cents; four packages for 50 cents. See advertisement in another column.

To Consumptives.

THE Advertiser, having been visited to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered severely with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure FOR CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Persons wishing the prescription will please add 2c.

A Novelty in the Art World!

PHOTOGRAPHY UPON PORCELAIN!

Secured by letters patent in the United States, England, France, and Belgium.

THE AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHIC PORCELAIN CO., No. 761 Broadway, New York.

Having secured their patent and ingenuity have been enabled to produce and manufacture a new and improved method of executing all kinds of Miniature Likenesses of Persons on China.

By sending all the attractive and marvellous features of ordinary photographs, the brilliancy and finish of a porcelain drawing, and a high and exclusive quality of durability, being made so impressible as the actual portrait. (See the artist upon which they are constructed.)

As the patented process of the Company enables the reproduction of fine spirit, portrait, or plain subjects, but upon a solid and of any degree of regularity—miniatures can be reproduced with fine accuracy and delicacy of delineation, upon Porcelain vessels of any description and dimension used as articles of luxury, or of household utility, such as Urns, Vases, Breakfast Cups, Toilet Articles, &c.

Securely secured (faithful portraits) and furnishing a unique and exquisite style of ornamentation at a moderate price.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the fine Arts desirous of having Portraits on Porcelain, the Company have imported from Europe a collection of superior porcelain goods, manufactured to their own order, which they sell at low prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right, and can readily supply the only sets authorized to use the process, they have determined, in order

To afford People in every section of the Union

An opportunity to possess

Portraits on China,

To make the following proposition to RESIDENTS in the COUNTRY, who are desirous of VISITING PERSONALLY FOR ARTISTICAL AND GALLERIES IN NEW YORK.
