SIMPLICITY .- A little girl of four years old was recently called as a witness in the Durham police-court, and in answer to the question as to what become of little girls who told lies, she innoscutly replied that they were sent to bed.

A NICE DISTINCTION.—A wilness on a recent trial in one of the superior courts admitted that she had seen the respondent "tipsy," but denied that she had seen her "drunk." Upon being asked to define the difference between the two expressions, she said that drunk meant "very stupid," but tipsy only meant "not bright."

A goose that sees another drink will do the same, though he is not thirsty. The custom of drinking for company, when drinking is dispensable and prejudical, seems to be a case of the same kind, and to put a man, feathers only excepted, up-en a footing with a goose.

A person remarkable for his stupidity and indolence was desired by his wife not to be gone so long, as she was afraid to "Pooh!' said he; "naught is never in danger.

I know that,' said she; "but Naught's In the examination of an Irish case for assault and battery, counsel, on cross examination of the witness, asked him what they had at the first place they stopped! He answered, "Four glasses of bile." What next? "Two glasses of wine." What next? "One glass of brandy." What next? "A fight, of course." What with will be Seld at the lewest remuner along the process.

"Susan, stand up and let me see what you have learned. What does ch-a-i-r "I don't know, marm."

"Why, you ignorant critter! What do you always sit on ?

"O, marm, I don't like to tell."
"What on earth is the matter with the al-tell what it is."

'I don't like to tell-it was Bill Cross' knee, but he never kissed me but twice! A western paper, chronicling the lamentable occurrence of a staging attached to a church being blown down, very feelingly says:—" We are happy to state that over twenty persons were brought suddenty to the ground safe, and one man, Mr. Wilkins, got his neck broke. Mr. W. was an estimable young man, and the father of a good many children, besides a large farm well stocked. He was fatally injured."

A gentleman who had put aside two offices of capital ale to recreate some rends, discovered just before dinner that is servant, a country bumpkin, had emptied them both. "Scoundrel!' said his master, " what do

"Seconder!: said his master, "what do you mean by this?"

"Why, sir, I saw plain enough by the clouds that it was going to thunder, so I drank up the yale at once, lest it should then sour, for there's nothing I do abominturn sour, for there's nothing I do abominate like waste."

IN WANT OF POCKET MONEY.-Uncle, and a young man, who thought that his guardian supplied him rather seldom with ocket-money, yet he felt a little hesitation in begining an assault on his relative's the I generosity, "is the Queen's head still on the shilling piece?"

"Of course it is, you stupil lad. Why do you ask that, you scamp?"

"Because it is now such a length of time since I saw one."

The following amusing incident took place the other day upon one of the Ohio steamboats. While the boat was lying at Cincinnati, just ready to start for Louisville, a young man came on board leading to blustering damsel by the hand, and ap-proaching the polite clerk, in a suppressed voice: "I say,' he exclamed, "me and my wife has just got married, and I am proaching the polite clerk, in a suppressed voice: "I say," he exclamed, "me and ny wife has just got married, and I am looking for a commodations." Looking for a berth? hasfily inquired the clerk passing tickets out to another passenger. "A birth! thunder and lightening, no!" CALEB LUDFORD, gasped the astonished man, we haint but just got married! we want a place to stay all night, you know, and—and a bed."
