DASTARDLY CONDUCT .- A dastardly occurrence took place on Friday evening, at Dodson's stables, King street East, the perpetrators of which deserve, if ever any one did, summary and condign punishment. one did, summary and condign punsiment. Late in the evening, about 11 o'clock, it was discovered that the stable door hid been broken open, and that a span of valuable horses, belonging to Mr. Lord, had been barbarously treated by some savage brute. The legs of both animals had been cut by an axe at the knee joint. Mr. Sloman veterinary surgen, was sent for and man, veterinary surgeon, was sent for and bandaged the injured limbs, but of course the animals, even although they recover, will never be so valuable as they have been. No motive can be assigned for the cowardly outrage, but we hope the perpetrator will be discovered and dealt with as he deserves.—Spectator.

BY REV. JOSEPH BELCHER, D.D.

THE LIFE OF JESUS CHRIST is the philosophy of true religion. It exhibits the Principles of Christianity in their purity and beauty. It is porfect excellence personified, that the unid of man may greep it, and be changed into the same image. The inspired witers have given it to us in detached descriptions. Dr. Flectwood is a arranged these in one harmonium whole, with such comments, explanations and incidental information as to render it allie acceptable to the relocar, as to thin who knows no more, but knowshistlishe time? Beloher's revised edition contains the Lives of the Aportles, History of the Joves, and an Essay on the Evidences of the Bible.
