THOMAS A. MILNE, ESQ.

SIR,

We the undersigned Electors of the East Riding of York, feeling confident that a General Election is about to take place, and having a knowledge of the integrity and truthfulness of your conduct through life, both as a gentleman and a man of business, would esteem it a favor if you would allow yourself to be put in nomination as a Candidate to represent this Riding, in the Provincial Parliament, at the next Election; and we pledge ourselves to give you our support and that of our influence—and will use all legitimate means in our power to secure your return.

[REPLY.]

GENTLEMEN,

I accept with much pleasure the Requisition presented to me, and hope, through your influence and exertions, to have the honour of representing you in the Provincial Parliament, for the East Riding of York.

I will at once visit the different parts of the County for the purpose of meeting the Electors, at such times and places as may be arranged by the Central Committee, when I shall be prepared to state my views upon various questions which are before the Electors.

T. A. MILNE.

Markham, June 17, 1861.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

EAST RIDING

OF THE

COUNTY OF YORK!

GENTLEMEN,—

On the Requisition of a large number of influential Electors, I offer myself as a Candidate to represent you in Parliament, and I frankly confess that it is not without doubt as to my ability to represent your interests as efficiently as they ought to be, or as I would desire to do Canadian born, educated within the County, and engaged in business as a Miller, Woolen Manufacturer and Farmer; so that my interests are identical with your own.

Should I have the honour of being your chosen Representative, I will advocate the following principles, irrespective of party; and I shall endeavour to judge honestly of the other measures, without reference to the source or origin from which they proceed, and support or oppose them on their merits alone:

1. A Confederative Union of the British American Provinces.
2. Maintenance of the present Union of the two Provinces, until a Confederative Union can be obtained.
3. A judicious retrenchment of the Public Expenditure in every department.
4. Public Money to be expended under no circumstances, without the consent of Parliament.
5. Reduction of Custom Duties on Machinery for Agricultural and Manufacturing purposes, when not manufactured within the Province.
6. A judicious Bankrupt Law.
7. Election of Wardens, Reeves, and Deputies by the people—the same as in towns and cities.
8. Abolition of the Franchising Privilege.
9. Payment of mileage and necessary expenses to Criminal Witnesses.
10. Systematic and judicious encouragement to Emigrants.
11. I am in favour of Representation by Population, and will support that measure, not as a means of oppressing Lower Canada, but as an act of justice to Upper Canada.
12. I am decidedly opposed to granting to the Grand Trunk any further assistance, and believe that all connection between it and the Government should be severed, and that it should assume the position of a purely commercial enterprise.
13. As British subjects, we cannot too strongly denounce the threats of appeal to France and Washington in the present disturbed state of political opinion; for our loyalty is due to a Queen distinguished for every grace and virtue that can adorn her position; our hearts are with the land which is a refuge to the exiles of tyranny, come from where they may.
14. The history of Great Britain—her struggles, her associations—are ours. Her support, her money, her credit, have assisted us through all our dangers and disadvantages. Let the old principles of the United Empire loyalists animate us to oppose whatever policy that would be likely to endanger our present connection with the mother country.
15. I have thus endeavored shortly to enunciate my views upon the more leading topics of the moment, avowing myself ready and willing at all times when called on at public meetings or otherwise, to endeavor to satisfy you more fully, if requisite, upon these and other matters, as there must be inevitably, from the old fixed for the return of the writs of Election, a very short time allowed for even an attempt at a personal canvass. I have, in a measure, to leave to your good will to make up for what might otherwise be wanting in that respect.
16. Wishing you all the prosperity that an old resident and neighbour, (if a young man) may be supposed to desire, and trusting that should I be elected, I may, at the end of my first Parliamentary term, be able fearlessly to meet you with an account of my stewardship.
17. I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your humble servant,

THOS. A. MILNE.
