

Poetry.

HYMN OF THE HARVESTERS.

We gathered them in—the bright green leaves,
With our scythes and rakes to-day, And the mow grows big, as the picker in heaven His lift of the swelling hay, O, ho! a field! for the mower's scythe Hath a ring of bright destiny, Sweeping the earth of its burden like,
As it sings in wistful gloe.

We gather them in—the nodding plumes Of yellow and bearded grain, And the flash of our sickle's light illumines Our march o'er the vanquished plain, Amos we come with these—down our
The cunning of modern laws;
And across stoop to the clanking jar,
As it locks its hungry jaws.

We gather them in—the yellow fruits From the shrub, the vine, the tree, With their russet, and golden, and purple suite,
To garnish our Treasury;
And each has a juicy treasure stored All a-month its lusted rind, To cheer each guest at the social board, When we leave our cares behind.

We gather them in—in this goodly store,
But not with the Miser's lust, For this great All-Father we adore Hath but given it in trust:
And our work of death is but for life In wintry days to come—Then a blessing upon the reaper's strife,
And a shout for their harvest home!

Miscellaneous.

The criticism of enemies is often more valuable than the advice of friends.

Songs without words—Those of that blessed baby.

Why is the letter G like the sun?—
Because it is the center of light.

What key will unlock most men's minds?—Whis-key.

Why is a servant's garret like a comet?
It is 'er attic, (erratic.)

Put your money in a box if you like; but not in a dice-box.

Books are embalmed minds. Fame is a flower upon a dead man's heart.

The best penance we can do for envying another's merit is to endeavor to surpass it.

The man cannot be your friend who will not allow you to teach him anything.

Wanted to know—whether the volume of sound has yet been found.

When do two and two not make four?
When they make 22.

AN IRISHMAN'S WILL.—"I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Bridget all my property, without reserve, and to my eldest son the remainder, and to Dinny, my youngest son, the rest. If anything is left, it may go to Terence McCarly."

The following impudent advertisement appeared in a Dublin paper lately:
"Matrimony. A young gentleman, aged 26, having great expectations, wishes to meet with a lady willing to join in the holy bonds of wedlock. A lady possessing £200 a-year, youth and beauty, would suit. Address, &c." Very modest in its demands certainly.

A fair warning.—The John O'Grat Journal says: "On the flagstaff erected at the battery for the Artillery Volunteers on the South Head here, there is fixed a notice that 'any person destroying the battery or the guns shall be severely punished.' We give publicity for the benefit of all who may harbor hostile designs upon our shores, as they may not see the notice themselves till it is too late to escape the punishment that infallibly awaits them."

OLD ACQUAINTANCE.—The keeper of a disorderly house being brought before the magistrate of Aberdeen, said to them, "Ye needna' a' look at me; it's nae the first time ye've seen me; many a time ye've a' been in my house." The Lord Provost saying to her—"You impudent sinner, will you say I've been in your house?" She replied—"Na, na, my Lord Provost, I munna' say that, but many a time has your son, Tam, been." There was no resisting this, and the dubious matron was set free.

DECISION AND DESTINY.—Pizarro, the conqueror of Peru, in one of his reverses, was cast on the island of Gallo, with a few of his followers. When in a starving condition, two vessels arrived from Panama for his relief, and to induce him to abandon his object. Now came the test of his decision of character, and the determination of his earthly destiny.
Drawing his sword, he traced a line with it on the sand, from east to west. Then turning towards the south, "Friends and comrades," said he, "on that side are toil, hunger, nakedness, the dreariest storm, desolation and death; on this side, ease and pleasure. There lies Peru with its riches—here Panama with its poverty.
Choose, each man, what becomes a brave Captain! For my part, I go to the south!"
He was followed by eleven others, and Peru was conquered.

THE MAJOR.—The large-bodied York-shireman, who had a full share of the attributes of his squire folk, in the service of the land department of the Illinois Central Railroad, gave him all the information necessary about the country. He was called the "Major" by his intimates, and said he, with a wink, "Once I was injured, but, unfortunately, there was a word before it—I was troop sergeant-major in the Queen's Bays." He pointed out the fat places where "we put our Englishmen," when they came to settle on the prairie lands on which we were just entering as morning broke, and seemed hopeful of a grand future for the vast plains, which only stood in need of a little wood to render them fit for the reception of desperating agriculturalist when the war fever is over.

FINKLE & LYON
SEWING-MACHINE COMPY., 538 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

NO person who contemplates purchasing a Sewing Machine for family or manufacturing purposes, should fail to send for one of our Circulars, which contain cuts and full descriptions of the several styles, prices and samples of work, all of which we send by mail free. We claim to have the best

Sewing Machines in the World For either Family or Manufacturing purposes.
And all we ask is a fair trial. Read the following:
IMPORTANT FACTS.

FACT No. 1.—This Company being duly licensed, their Machines are protected against infringements or litigation.
FACT No. 2.—These Machines make the lock-stitch—like on both sides—and use a little less than half as much thread and silk as the chain or loop-stitch machines.
FACT No. 3.—These Machines are better adapted than any other sewing-machines in the market to the frequent changes and almost endless variety of sewing required in a family. They will sew from one to twenty thicknesses of Marseilles without stopping, and make every stitch perfect. They will even sew from the finest gauze to the heaviest cloth, and even stout, hard leather, without changing the foot, needle, or tension, or making any adjustment of machine whatever. Is not such a machine best adapted to family use? and if best adapted to family use, why not for every variety of light sewing manufacture? For work too heavy for our Family Machine, we recommend our larger sizes.

FACT No. 4.—These Machines make the most elastic seam of any sewing-machine in use—a fact of very great importance in sewing elastic goods, or goods of any kind, on a line.
FACT No. 5.—No Machine is more durable or more simple in its construction, or more easily understood. The reputation of these Machines wherever used will fully demonstrate each of the above facts.

FACT No. 6.—These Machines took the Highest Premium at the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.
FACT No. 7.—These Machines took the Highest Premium at the New Jersey State Fair.
FACT No. 8.—These Machines took the highest Medal at the American Institute, in the City of New York, together with the Highest Premium for fine Sewing-Machine Work.

FACT No. 9.—These Machines took both the Highest Premiums at the Mechanics' Fair, Utica, N.Y.
FACT No. 10.—These Machines can do the same thing cheaply, whenever properly employed in competition with other first-class Sewing-Machines. But we have space for only one fact more—it is the most important fact of all.

FACT No. 11.—We warrant every Machine we sell to give better satisfaction than any other Sewing Machine in the market, or money refunded.
