PL. SING MY SONG WHATEVER BE- TIDE.

O what rock I, the Poorth's blast,
Blows over my liffin, could an' keen?
An' what the kind an' generous hearts
Are no one rife as they have been?
The selfish greed an' rabbit spleen
Stand gloomy glowerin' side by side;
Yet can't I play a spring,
An' sing my sang whate'er betide?

This world's nan weary bod o' thorn,
For a' the dolaful' moon that's made;
You sun that shines on silken brows,
Blinks cheery on my gold green glaid;
Sour discontent shrinks back dismayed,
When heart loughs high w' sturdy pride
Sae can't I play a spring,
An' sing my sang whate'er betide!

My honsie's nae great boast, I trow,
A wee wee but—a wee wee bon;
Yet lauchin' face makes nae dail' ha',
An' that's what lordlies seldom ken.
Wi' wife an' weans I blithely fen,
As down life's stream we saftly glide;
Sae can't I play a spring,
An' sing my sang whate'er betide!

Despondency's a beggar born—
(Lang may his back be at the wa'!)
Yet gin he daur to show his pow,
My chenter'll the louder blow!
The darkest night brings o'er the dawe:
The thistle's eye its downy side;
Sae can't I play a spring,
An' sing my sang whate'er betide!

Pair dowie child, that's akin an' lane
Wi' nocht but borrow'd misery—
Wha canna pierce the golden joy,
That bloom's nae freedom's rosy sky;
Greet out yer fill; I carena by;
Tho' fules may sneer, an' gowks deride;
I'll play my pith a canny spring,
An' sing my sang whate'er betide!

Miscellaneous

Style.—What every coxcomb imagines
he has attached to his gait.

The one great thing that has passed this season.—Passing Lord John into the House of Lords.

Nearly all our silver, judging from the difficulty of holding it in one's grasp, must be quicksilver.

Some winds are like sieves; they retain all that is worthless, while all that is good passes through them.

The manners which are neglected as small things are often that which decide men for or against you.

Those who lack a natural character may be sure they cannot long sustain without detection, an artificial one.

Miss Tucker says it's with old bachelors as with old wood; it is hard to get them started, but when they do they burn prodigiously.

We should suffer little from ill spirits without, were it not for an ill spirit within that holds treasonable correspondence with them.

If you want to have a man for your friend, never get the ill-will of his wife.
Public opinion is made up of the average prejudices of womankind.

A sharp answer.—"What is meant by the defection of the needle?" asked a domineer of a female pupil. "When it runs up into the quirk of the nail," was the reply.

A pin upwards of an inch in length, was discovered in a hen's egg, near Kes-wick, one morning last week. The egg had been boiled for breakfast, and the pin was discovered standing perpendicular in the centre.

A newly married couple were one night lying in bed, talking over "matters and things," when a heavy thunder-storm arose.
The loud peals of thunder and vivid flashes of lightning filled them with terror and fearful apprehensions. Suddenly they had received an electric shock. Johnathan throwing his arms around his dear, exclaimed—"Hang up to me, Liz, let's die like men."

A Double Hit.—A noble lord ordered his bricklayer to stucco his house down in the best manner. The bricklayer, not doing it to his lordship's liking, and charging more than he expected, the latter exclaimed, in a violent fit of passion: "You are an arrant knave. Am I?" said the bricklayer.
"Just as your lordship spoke, the clock s'rick two."

One Good Turn Deserves Another.—A favorite magpie had been accustomed to receive dainty bits from the mouth of its mistress. The other day, it perched as usual on her shoulder, and inserted its beak between her lips, not, as it proved, to receive, for, as one good turn deserves another, the grateful bird dropped an immense green caterpillar into the lady's mouth!

Grog-shops for women.—A respectable New York paper positively asserts that there are certain select places in that city, frequented by the most gorgeous style, and patronized almost exclusively by women of wealth and fashion, who go there for ice-cream, fruit, &c., then for claret, champagne, brandy, minjuleps, cherry-cobblers, and brandy-sling.

Curiosities Wanted.—Hinges and locks from the trunk of an elephant.

Thermometrical record of the winter of our discontent.

A rough yarn twisted into a thread of discourse.

Daguerreotype of the girl Mr. Barney was asked to let alone.

Rockers for the cradle of liberty.

The shadow of a knot hole.

Feather from the wing of a flying report.

A rifle for the scythe of time.

The litch string of a lodge in some vast wilderness.

To see the 'mountain's brow' frown.

A nail from the 'finger of scorn.'

BEAVER MUTUAL Fire Insurance Association, TORONTO, C.W.

OFFICE, 20, TORONTO STREET
INCORPORATED UNDER ACT OF PARLIAMENT,
22 Vic., Cap. 23.

DIRECTORS:—H. Rowell, Toronto; B. W.
Smith, Barrie; Dr. Dunsmuir, Richmond
Hill; W. H. Smith, Toronto; Donald Sutherland, Toronto; Wm. H. Wellwell, Scarborough; Edwin Chown, Kingston; S. Thompson, Toronto.

HAVING guarded against loss from Fire by insuring your property, consider if it would not be as well to make a little additional provision for your family in case of your own premature death?—whether it would not be as well, through the assistance of a Life Assurance Company, to provide a legacy for your wife or daughter, or, if you have not the happiness to be blessed with them, think if the possession of a few hundred pounds additional might not be of advantage to yourself a few years hence. If you decide that it will, write to the Managing Director of the PROVIDENT LIFE ASSURANCE
AND INVESTMENT COMPANY,
20 Toronto Street, Toronto, for a "Proposal" form, and a copy of the Rates.

Dr. Smith, the Agent of the "Beaver" may possess a copy of both documents, which he can accommodate you with, and give you a little information on the subject besides.

[Insurance may be effected for one, two, three or three years, at moderate rates.

Agent at Richmond Hill—J. R. ARNOLD.
Toronto, April 19, 1861. 125-1y

PINKLE & LYON SEWING-MACHINE COM'Y.,

538 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

NO person who contemplates purchasing a Sewing Machine for family or manufacturing purposes, should fail to send for one of our Circulars, which contains cuts and full descriptions of the several styles, prices and samples of work, all of which we send by mail free. We claim to have the best

Sewing Machines in the World
For either Family or Manufacturing purposes.
And all we ask is a fair trial. Read the following:

IMPORTANT FACTS.
FACT No. 1.—This Company being duly licensed, their Machines are protected against infringements or imitations.

FACT No. 2.—These Machines make the lock-stitch—stitch on both sides—and use a little less than half as much thread and silk as the chain or loop-stitch machines.

FACT No. 3.—These Machines are better adapted than any other sewing-machines in the market to the frequent changes and almost endless variety of sewing required in a family. They will sew from one to twenty thicknesses of Muslins without stopping, and make every stitch perfect. They will even sew from the finest gauze to the heaviest cloth, and even stout, hard leather, without changing the feed
