MARNIED.

By the Rev. Mr. Mick, on the 21st inst. Mr.

JONE EONE, to Miss Caroline Hartman, both of Vaughan. To the court of Saturday, and appeared to be in the enjoyment of his usual health, and seemed quite cheerful when he left for shome in the afternoon. About eight o'clock in the evening, while he was sitting in the parlour of his horse with Mrs. Gurnett, he complained of a sudden number nett, he complained of a sudden number in the fingers of his felt hand, and afterwards in his left side. Dr. Tipple was immediately sent for, and on his arrival found that Mr. Garnett had been attacked with paralysis. Excepthing was done for his relief that medical aid could suggest, but without avail, and Dr. Tipple continuations. but without avail, and Dr. Tipple continued in constant attendance on him till he died. Up till the afternoon of yesterday be retained his consciousness, and was able to recognize the members of his family and others. Between two and three o'clock he became insensible, and appeared to suffer greatly until death came to his r to suffer greatly until ucas. Sales lief at the time above mentioned, when his spirit took its flight to the God who gave it. The deceased gentleman, who was in his 70th year, was a native of England, and had resided in Toronto for upwards of thirty years. Shortly after his arrival in this city he commenced the publication of a newspaper, which he dited himself. He a newspaper, which he turn in public flat took a very prominent part in public affairs when the city was incorporated, and for a lengthened period serven in the City Council as an Alderman, and was three several times elected to fill the important office of Mayor. On receiving his appointment of Police Magistrate, upwards of twenty years ago, he retired from the Council, and devoted his whole time and attention to the duties of his office. He was very careful in giving deci. ons in the many cases that came before him for investigation. He also filled the office of Clerk of the Peace for the United Counties of York and Peel, and wes a Lieut Colonel in the Sedentary milita. The decased gentle-Sedentary militia. The decrased gentle-man was well known in Toronto, and throughout the country generally, and was highly respected by all who knew him, as an opright and honourable man. He was twice married and leaves a widow and two daughters—one of them unmarried—to pure his loss.

Letters received from St. Peterspurgh, Letters received from St. Petersourgh, dated 25th ult., announce fresh conflicts between the autherities and the students at the re-opening of the University. The number of 700 students applied for re-admission—demanding that those who had not received a card of admission, should nevertheless be admitted into the University. sity. The demand was refused, and fresh turnults ensued in the University buildings, resulting in the interference of the military. The students are reported to have made an active resistance, but in spite of this 200 of them were arrested. The soldiers used their weapons, and many of the stu-dents were wounded.

The trial of John Curran, the Dublin cabman, for the gross outrage upon Miss Jolly, ended upon Wednesday, the case having occupied the Court for five days. The defence was closed on Tuesday afternoon, and Mr. Justice O'Brien delivered his charge to the jury on the following day. was sentenced to two years' penal servitude
—a punishment whica we cannot think at all commensurate with his villainous seconds all commensurate with his villatious assault.

Great interest has been manifested by the public in the trial, which was still further? increased by the committal for perjury of a young girl, Agnes Wiles, one of the witnesses for the prosecution.

The estimated Vankee property in the State of Virginia under the ban of the Sequestration Act amount to $30,000,000.
