OF SCOTTISH LITERATURE AND NEWS

FIFTH YEAR.

On January 2, 1652, will be commenced a new rolaume (Y) of the Scottens American Journat; and in future the numbers issued between the first and last days of each year will continue a complete volume, of convenient size for binding, and each number will contain a most entertaining and instructive repertory of reading matter, cale that do interest an integrate of British origin. The Scotters American Journat, though decidedly international prosperity between the people of Great British in its copious records of all events occurring in Scotl and that can be regarded of the least interest to natives of that country residing in America, and to this "news from home" is added, weekly, a summary, of general intelligence from England, Irland, and other parts of the world A distinguishing feature of the "Scottish General Teach and General Control Japan, Superfine Young Hyson and General Control Japan, Superfine Young Hyson and General Control Co by, a summary, of general intelligence from England, Ireland, and other parts of the world A distinguishing feature of the "Scottish American Journal" is its regular re-publication merchalm of literatim—of the "leading articles" of the prominent British newspapers and other periodicals upon the most important topics of the 4-sy. This feature is a usique one, a.d has be found very acceptable to the people of Br. A North America, as it supplies a long-new-ded electratum in the Provinces. In reference to the "editorials" of the Scorress America Journal, as significant fact that the British press trequently acknowledges their intrinsic tutth and force by copiously extracting from our columns and declaring that the Scorress American Journal, is the most able and interacting paper published in America. A concise weekly summarty is also given of the principal terms of American leaves, and a similar article of events transpring in the various British Provinces, the latter feature supplying a deficiency which was felt in several of the Provinces of intelligence as to what was transpring in the parts of the British possessions.

In the forthcoming volume of the "Scottish American Journal" increased space will be devoted to the literary department in the publication of strat. Tatze and Section provinces and tale emmanding from the pen of an author of colonity. As the resolute, particular care will

The present critical state of European affair The present critical state of European attairs will rouder these publications universally interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily writen news itsnes, crude speculatiens, and flying ranners of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicial that readers must look for the only really intelligible interest of current events and reacers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we arge them upon the consideration of the reading public.
