WAR MAPS FREE

To follow intelligently the European War situation and keep in touch with the lightning movements of the troops a comprehensive war map of Europe giving all details is essential.
Of all the Maps issued there is but one that fills the bill, and that is the one issued specially by the celebrated map makers—G. W. Bacon & Co., London, Eng.
The Publishers of "The Family Herald and Weekly Star" of Montreal, always alive to the best interests of their subscribers the moment the map was issued, cabled an offer for Canadian rights of the map. Their offer has been accepted, and "Family Herald" subscribers will have the best Map available.
THE LIBERAL has concluded arrangements with "The Family Herald and Weekly Star" by which our readers may also secure the map free of charge. In this issue will be found a clubbing offer of the two papers, including the Map. The offer is one that every reader of THE LIBERAL should accept.
Newspapers are paying dearly for the war. The price of paper is going up, up, up! The cost of telegrams and cablegrams has increased from thirty to fifty per cent. Scores of newspapers have suspended publication, and hundreds of others have raised the subscription price. For the present "The Family Herald and Weekly Star," of Montreal, being in an exceptionally strong position is able for the present, at all events, to keep its rate as formerly, but an increase later on may become necessary. In the meantime, during the next thirty days, our readers are offered the greatest bargain in the newspaper world today. Read over announcement on page four of this paper, and order at once at THE LIBERAL office.

A very pleasant event took place on Wed. Sept. 9, when the Mapes family held a re-union at their old home which is now occupied by Misses M. E. and S. L. Mapes. Those unable to attend were Mr. Walter Mapes of Cleveland, who visited his sisters recently; Mr. Will Mapes, Buffalo and Mrs. John Ashman, Toronto.
The members of the former generation present were Mr. Albert Mapes, Toronto; Mrs. J. Blake, West Toronto; and Mrs. Godfrey, Toronto.
The day was all that could be desired; old familiar scenes were visited especially the church and cemetery and the site of their grandfathers old mill. During the afternoon the kodak was in evidence and several snaps were taken which will be greatly prized by all.
After a sumptuous supper had been served the friends numbering about fifty dispersed, hoping this sociable event would be repeated. The happy gathering was saddened by the serious illness of Mrs. Ashman's youngest daughter Muriel who passed away on Sunday.
