

BABY'S FACE MASS OF ERUPTION

Spread Over Head and Neck. Caused Disfigurement, Burning and Itching. Could Not Get Any Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

1 Hibernia Ave., West Toronto, Ont.—
"First we noticed a rash on our child's face, which soon began to spread all over his head and then around his neck. I thought it was going all over his body. It was in red patches on his face, then pimples began to form which broke and matter was running from them. His face and head was a mass of eruption and it caused a very bad disfigurement, also burning and itching. The child could not get any sleep. I tried several kinds of ointments and powders but with no success for about two months. The rash seemed to get worse. Little blisters would form then burst and a lot of discharge would come out."

"We tried — Ointment and — but to no good effect. After the child had been suffering about two months we were recommended to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After a few applications it gave relief and the child began to get some sleep. In about six weeks Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely healed the trouble and not a scar is left." (Signed) Mrs. Wm. Tucker, Feb. 19, 1914.

DISHONOR OR DEATH.

British Soldiers Preferred Death, But Were Rescued in Time.

The remarkable escape of a number of British prisoners, after they had been threatened with death by their German captors if they refused to give information as to the positions of the British and French forces, was described by Corporal F. C. Toovey, of the 1st Battalion, Gloucestershire Regiment. Toovey, who is an officer in the Reading (England) police force, fought in three battles, and has returned home wounded.

"In the course of one engagement," he said, "I and about thirty others belonging to different regiments were cut off from the ambulance wagon and taken prisoners. We were conveyed to a mansion, where we remained for eleven days. The food was very scanty, and we had to live principally on apples and pears."

"At the end of the eleventh day the Germans requested us to divulge the positions of the British and French. This we declined to do, whereupon our captors said that they would give us four hours in which to reconsider our positions, and if we still refused we should all be put to death. We replied that rather than give the information demanded of us we would prefer death."

"Soon afterwards we witnessed six French and Belgians, who had refused to comply with a similar request by the Germans, being marched from the mansion. After being cruelly tortured they were killed.

Several of those who had been taken prisoners with me were then tied to trees. When the time limit given us had almost elapsed, French artillery raided the building and rescued us, the Germans escaping."

Chest Colds and Hoarseness Quickly Rubbed Away

"Nerviline" Gives Speedy Relief and Cures Over Night.

Got a cold? Is your voice raspy—is your chest congested or sore?

If so, you are the very person that Nerviline will cure in a jiffy. Nerviline is strong and penetrating. It sinks right into the tissues, takes out inflammation and soreness, destroys colds in a truly wonderful way. Rub Nerviline over the chest—rub on lots of it, and watch that tightness disappear. Nerviline won't blister, it sinks in too fast—doesn't simply stay on the surface like a thick, oily liniment would. If the throat is raspy and sore, rub it well outside with Nerviline, and use Nerviline as a gargle diluted with warm water. Just one or two treatments like this and your voice and throat will be quickly normal again.

Just think of it—for forty years the largest used family medicine in this country—Nerviline must be good, must quickly relieve and cure a hundred ills that befall every family. Try it for earache, toothache, coughs, colds, sore chest, hoarseness and muscular pains in every part of the body. Large family size bottle 50c.; trial size 25c., at all dealers.

Lots of people would rather send a dollar to the heathen than give the poor at home a pleasant look.

GERMAN TREACHERY.

Feign Surrender and Then Resort to Murderous Tactics.

Corporal W. Hastings, of the Guards, in a letter which he sent home, tells a friend at Merstham of the treachery of the Germans.

It's an insult to Zulus to compare these squareheads to them for treachery. Some of them fight fair and square, but there are thousands of others who are devoid of all human feeling. What do you think of this? Near the banks of the River Aisne they had attacked and been driven back, and they came again and again, but they were brought down by rifles and machine-guns. A small detachment of the Northamp-ton were in a trench when 400 or 500 of the Germans held up their hands. The "Cobblers" were ordered not to fire, and an officer asked in French and English if they surrendered. They came on in skulking manner, and some threw down their rifles. In every way they showed they were giving themselves up as prisoners.

The "Cobblers" were priding themselves on the capture; but when the Germans were three or four yards away they poured a murderous fire at the poor fellows. They had not a dog's chance, and nearly all were knocked over. The devils then tried to get back, and ran for their lives, but our battalion was soon after them. Before they got many yards a machine-gun ripped them up, and scores of them rolled over. Some got away, but our battalion got them in the rear. Our lads were simply furious at such treachery.

THE MOTHERS OF MEN.

By Joaquin Miller.

The bravest battle that ever was fought!

Shall I tell you where and when? On the maps of the world you will find it not—

'Tis fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with cannon or battle shot,

With sword or nobler pen!

Nay, not with eloquent words or thought

From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in the walled-up woman's heart—

Of woman that would not yield.

But bravely, silently, bore her part—

Lo, there is that battlefield!

No marshalling troop, no bivouac song,

No banner to gleam and wave;

But, oh! their battles, they last

From babyhood to the grave.

Yet faithful still as a bridge of stars,

She fights in her walled-up town—

Fights on and on in endless wars.

Then, silent, unseen, goes down.

Oh, ye with banners and battle shot,

And soldiers to shout and praise,

I tell you the kingliest victories fought

Were fought in those silent ways.

Oh, spotless woman in a world of shame,

With splendid and silent scorn,

Go back to God as white as you came,

The kingliest warrior born!

British Aeroplanes the Best.

"The British aeroplanes have proved to be more than equal to those of the Germans," says the Paris correspondent of the London Times. "Especially success has been scored with the new type of British aeroplane called the 'chaser,' which is capable of developing a speed of 150 miles an hour, and which can rise from the ground at a very sharp angle. The German anti-airship guns are so effective that it is unwise for the British or French aviators to fly lower than 6,000 feet from the ground. An airman when under fire has to keep up continual glides, sharp turns and evolutions in order to prevent the enemy from getting an accurate aim. Looping the loop, however, is strictly forbidden."

A Nova Scotia Case of Interest to All Women

Halifax Sends Out a Message of Help to Many People.

Halifax, N.S., Dec. 15.—When interviewed at her home at 194 Argyle St., Mrs. Haverstock was quite willing to talk of her peculiarly unfortunate case. "I was always 'blue' and depressed, felt weak, languid and utterly unfit for any work. My stomach was so disordered that I had no appetite. What I did eat disagreed. I suffered greatly from dizziness and sick headache and feared a nervous breakdown. Upon my druggist's recommendation I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

"I felt better at once. Every day I improved. In six weeks I was a well woman, cured completely after different physicians had failed to help me. It is for this reason that I strongly urge sufferers with stomach or digestive troubles to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

Dr. Hamilton's Pills strengthen the stomach, improve digestion, strengthen the nerves and restore debilitated systems to health. By cleansing the blood of long-standing impurities, by bringing the system to a high point of vigor, they effectually chase away weariness, depression and disease. Good for young or old, for men, for women, for children. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

COPELAND'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

David Warnock, 202 Withrow Ave., Toronto, writes that he owes his life to the above remedy:

"Now that I am well and strong again, I write to state that the fact I am alive to-day witnesses to the merit of your medicine. The doctor gave me only 8 to 10 days to live. . . . I wish every one could know the worth of your medicine, especially those afflicted with consumption, as I was, for I undoubtedly saved my life to its use. Etc."

A doctor and a specialist attended David Warnock and gave him no hope. That was in March, 1911. Four months afterwards, he was a well man and had gained 66 lbs. If you suffer, or know of one, send us your address, and we will send a copy of Warnock's testimony in full and also many others; some of which have been cured of chronic bronchitis of over 30 years' standing.
