A live, healthy farmers' weekly newspaper is the Weekly Sun of Toronto. It is not owned by any "special interest," but takes a fearless and independent stand on all public matters, regardless of politics. It stands for the farming interests, and is in the thick of the fight. It has the prestige of an established personality. You should read it—every issue.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Mr. Strathbee of Toronto. Tickets may be secured by members of the committee, or at the door.

The Thornhill Branch of the Women's Institute will meet Thursday, Nov. 19th, at the home of the President, Mrs. Moyle. In the afternoon Mrs. Mearns will speak on "Housewives League and its work." After tea to which the gentlemen are invited, Mr. Oke will take up the subject of "Our Country's Resources." Each member is requested to bring a written question. These will be discussed at the December meeting.

There is always someone somewhere who is anxious to buy what you have to sell, someone who has just the article you want to buy. To complete a deal, each must know the other's wants, and there is no better way to make these wants known than through the "New Advertisement" column of The Liberal.

LITANY FOR OUR ARMY AND NAVY

God of our fathers, at whose call
We now before Thy footstool fall,
Whose grace has made our Empire strong,
Through love of right, and hate of wrong;
In this dark hour we plead with Thee
For Britain's cause on land and sea.

Not for the lust of war we fight,
But for the triumph of the right,
The strife we hate is on the thrust;
Our aims are pure, our cause is just;
So strong in faith we plead with Thee
For Britain's cause on land and sea.

Asleep beneath thy ample dome,
With many a tender dream of home,
Or charging in the dust and glare,
With war bolts hurling through the air;
In this dark hour we plead with Thee
For Britain's sons on land and sea.

If wounded in the dreadful fray,
Be Thou their comfort and their stay,
If dying, may they in their pain
Behold the Lamb for sinners slain
In this dark hour we plead with Thee
For Britain's sons on land and sea.

And soon, O Blessed Prince of Peace,
Bring in the days when war shall cease.
And men as brothers shall unite
To fill the world with love and light.
Till then, O Lord, we plead with Thee
For Britain's cause on land and sea.

DIED

BONE.—At Carrville on Wednesday, November 11, 1914, William Bone, in his 70th year.

Funeral to Carrville Cemetery, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A Fine Gift

The new organ presented by Mr. A. J. H. Eckhardt to the Lutheran Church at Unionville will be used for the first time on Sunday next when special services will be held, forenoon and afternoon, and a concert and organ recital given on Monday night. This fine organ is dedicated to the memory of the fathers and pioneers of Markham Township.

H. S. Tournament

In spite of the rather unfavourable weather a goodly number of Richmond Hill people assembled at the H. S. grounds last Friday afternoon to witness the tournament held there. All the honors of the day rest with Aurora. An enjoyable time was spent by those present and about $20.00 was collected for the Patriotic Fund and will be handed over to Mr. Hume as a contribution from the Richmond Hill High School.

Special Car

The annual rally of the Toronto Epworth League Union will be held on this (Thursday) evening, November 12 in Carlton St. Methodist church. Hon. W. H. Hearst, provincial premier, will give a patriotic address. A good time is anticipated. A special car will leave Richmond Hill Metropolitan station at 6.30 p.m. and return after the rally. Return tickets 25 cents. A banner will be presented to the League taking the largest number in proportion to their membership.

The following notice of business change is taken from a recent number of The Sun Angelo Daily Standard. The new proprietor is a son of Mrs. J. L. Harris of this village:—
"Dr. Fred R. Baker, owner of the Baker Optical Company, has sold the business to Dr. N. Ley Harris of New York City.

This was the first exclusive optical establishment ever opened in San Angelo and was a success from the start and Dr. Baker during his six years residence here built up an extensive reputation. He held prominent official positions in both the state and national societies and placed West Texas on the map so far as optometry is concerned.

Dr. Harris, the new owner, comes highly recommended. He is a graduate of a leading New York optical college and was employed by a prominent New York City optical firm for over twelve years. His wife and three children will arrive shortly and he has rented the residence occupied by Dr. Baker and family in Angelo Heights.
