UNITED CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT

The pupils of the United Church Sunday School again displayed their various talents for entertaining, at the annual Christmas concert held on Monday evening. The boys and girls acted their parts splendidly and one notable feature were the comic readings by the three Clark brothers. After the concert jolly old Santa came through the snow storm and helped distribute the gifts from the heavily loaded tree. When the children were all remembered, Santa searched down to the bottom of his pack and found a lovely turkey each for Rev. Dr. Sparling, Mr. Galbraith and Mr. B. Oke. Although the children have excellent talent it was quite apparent that careful training was necessary of which much credit is due to Mrs. J. McDonald, Geraldine Wesley, Isabelle Farr, Edna Wiltshire, Marguerite Echlin and Neil McDonald.

THE ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING

The annual school meeting was held on Christmas morning in the Public School with Mr. J. C. Smith in the chair. The usual business was transacted. Dr. C. P. Johns the retiring trustee was re-elected by acclamation. It was moved and carried that the principal salary would be raised two hundred dollars with one hundred dollars increase each year until two thousand dollars is reached.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wardle are rejoicing over the arrival of a son Frederick James.

The gymnasium of the Public School was crowded on Thursday afternoon on the occasion of the annual school Christmas entertainment. The children presented a long and elaborate programme and the pupils took their parts with fine spirit and efficiency, revealing long and patient training. Choruses were sung by the whole school and one, "Ye Olde Tyme Merrie Christmas," was rendered by Miss Milburn's room. Recitations were given by Lawrence Thornton, Tommy Hamilton, Dorothy Coghill, Eileen Moore, Billie Giles, Patsy Foreman, Nora Shergold, Alvin Patterson, Dorcen Maynard and Alec. Marshall. Miss Tate's boys gave a lively dialogue, "Ding-a-ling," some senior girls presented a beautiful pantomime, "Lead Kindly Light," a wedding by the young folk of Miss Jackson's room gave much fun; Miss Soden's room revelled in the glories of a "December's Day;" Delva Conner and a number of senior girls performed lively dances; Isobel Hicks and Charlie Wimbs gave a bright dialogue and Miss Russell's room presented a Christmas Acrostic and The Real Santa. Then Santa Claus appeared and there was much shouting, rejoicing and gift giving. The trees were stripped of their glory and their fruit and hundreds of hearts were made very happy. Mr. Harry Smith, was the chairman of this happy event.

The Christmas music in the Newtonbrook United Church last Sunday, was very fine. Beautiful anthems were sung by the choir at both morning and evening services. At the evening service Mrs. Armon contributed a solo. Mr. Hill's choice voluntaries on the organ were most effectively rendered. In the morning Mr. Young's Christmas message was "The Gift of Christ, the Dayspring from on High," the gift of God's tender and most considerate love for mankind and the gift that has wrought the greatest blessings in the lives of men, bringing love, peace and joy. The evening message showed that Christ revealed God was a God of good-will, His kingdom a kingdom of good-will and the members of His kingdom were people of good-will.

The members of the Newtonbrook Young People's Society were planning to hold a banquet in connection with their annual meeting. The date chosen is Monday, December 30th.

I close my report with the good wish to all Liberal readers, both in and out of Newtonbrook,—A Happy New Year!

ZION PUBLIC SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Snow-blocked roads did not prevent the children of the Zion Public school or their friends from coming out and crowding their school on Thursday evening on the occasion of their annual Christmas entertainment. Mr. J. G. Pike was the chairman and he filled his part efficiently. There was a long and varied programme of choruses, recitations and dialogues. A pretty pantomime was presented and the boys gave fun with their minstrel show, kazoo band and shadow pictures. A vote of thanks was moved by the Rev. E. R. Young, who complimented the scholars upon their excellent performance, the teacher, Miss Pike, upon her successful training and the chairman upon the fine way he had performed his onerous duties. Santa Claus appeared and did his part to the evident satisfaction of all concerned.

A well-laden tree was stripped of its glittering presents. Then, late at night, after many hearty and kindly well-wishes amongst the happy people they went out to face the choked roads. A few lucky ones had discovered their long unused sleighs and horses. The others had to walk; some, who had brought autos, trudged through the snow back to the places where they were, dug them out and got back to their homes as best they could.

Special Christmas music was sung in the Zion United church last Sunday. Two fine quartettes were rendered by Mrs. A. Pike, Miss Ella and Messrs. Vernon and Harvey Pike.

Mr. John Johnson has returned to his home and was heartily welcomed back after his long and trying illness.

Here and There

"Say it with apples," Canadian Pacific Express Company slogan for the sending of gifts by Canadians to friends in Great Britain and Europe, is being extended from Christmas and New Year presents to gifts sent at all times of the year. With the present bumper apple crop of Canada, the fruit can be bought at a reasonable price and its quality is of the highest. It sent overseas before the close of navigation on the St. Lawrence, cost will be considerably reduced.

North York Producers Held Christmas Market

The annual Christmas Market of the North York Producers' Association was held at the Market House, City Limits, last Monday, the quality of exhibits was exceptionally good and was the subject of very favorable comment.

Everything was very gay. Stalls found themselves transformed into arbors with holly-wreathed paper and Christmas bells. Here and there you caught the gleam of a silver cup—the tall one went to Mrs. Robert Pindar, of Newtonbrook from the best table display—a win for the second year for the table of which she was the convener; another, put up by the Bank of Commerce, and a most useful shape rested on the table where Mrs. Leath-erdale, of Maple, laid out her wares. She had won the most-coveted award on the market—first prize for butter. I couldn't resist bringing home a pound—at 50c. Besides this award $10. was put up and distributed among those who won 94 points on their butter-making skill.

Poultry Prizes

Poultry prizes were found on several tables. The sweepstakes came to Mr. Carman Tilson, of Kettleby, who got first on a 10-pound turkey; first on a pair of these Christmas birds; first for champion turkey and first for poultry display—geese, ducks and chickens. While admiring this stall I had an opportunity of seeing the deputy-reeve of King, Mr. Elton Armstrong, doing some sleight-of-hand work with a bit of string and a nice fat goose. Twisting its neck over the back and securing it there with a cord passed through the wings, he improved the appearance of the bird so much that a marketer coming along at the moment bought the creature on the spot. Geese, by the way, were 30c and 35c a pound. It was the deputy-reeve's first visit to the market and he says it won't be his last.

Mrs. Pindar and Mrs. George Bowes tied for the little silver tea set offered as a sweepstake. Mrs. Pindar got second on cockerels, first on display of fancy cake and pastry; and Mrs. Bowes first and a special on her red rosetted ducks, and first and a special on chicken. Mrs. C. Moynihan won second and third on her beautifully-fattened cockerels, and a second on bread; Mrs. H. Patterson, also of Gormley, had first and second on pullets, second on ducks and second and third on her geese. Just behind her was Mrs. J. J. Lees, of Maple, with a first and a special on her geese and a third on her ducks. Across the way Mrs. C. R. James, Richmond Hill, wife of the president of the market board (and convener of table 16, which won third prize for display) got first and second on plum cake; Mrs. W. O. White, convener of table 2, which won second prize for display, getting third.

Vegetable Gaiety

One of the most artistic displays on the market was that of Mr. H. Davis, Richmond Hill—vegetables piled slantingly, against the wall—fresh greens, the gold and green of squash, the purple of kohlrabi, and cabbages and curly kale in the background, all deserving of the red ticket affixed. Near this Mr. W. L. Stephens, of Aurora, won a silver cup—sweepstakes again—eggs and potatoes and carrots doing the trick for him. Another Aurora man, Mr. I. B. Thornton, got first for display, first for pullet extras, a second on extras and a second on firsts.

As to bread, first went to Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Gormley, for buns, as well as bread; Mrs. Moynihan came second and Mrs. Haworth of Richmond Hill, third on both bread and buns. Mrs. White won out with her white layer cake and a row of blue cards showed that she had captured three more prizes. Mrs. Pool, wife of the former superintendent of the market, came off first with potatoes, and near her stall were the group of young men who always have such attractive shows of fruits and vegetables every market day—George Brown, with seconds on cauliflower, celery, and carrots; firsts on onions, Spies and McIntosh Reds; William Craggs, with firsts on celery, beetroot, cauliflower and best collection; a second for hard cabbage, and a third for carrots. Mr. Thornhill had first on parsnips, second and third on cabbage; while Savoy honors went to A. L. Privett, who had also a third on onions. Next door Mr. A. F. Lund won the potato display.

For the floral display and for potted plants the winner was Mrs. George Sayers; and Mrs. W. A. Sambrook carried off a number of prizes with display of eggs, specials and pullet extras, the specials winning a first. Off in a far corner Mrs. G. Chapman won a first for extras, with only six, but they were the best.

One of the most varied tables was that where Mrs. Edward Belford presided. Guinea fowl—75c each—hung all feathered, from the front of the stall, and on it were all sorts of nice things, including a basket filled with a pudding, a cake, grape juice, pots of jam, buns, apples and pears, and the whole only $3, and a basket of apples carried a prize ticket.
