The executive of the W.A. of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church had its first meeting of the year at the home of President Mrs. George Carmichael.

Many projects were discussed and if accomplished, a busy year is indicated. The first event will be the annual Spring luncheon to be held during the Easter holidays.

The next meeting will be on February 3 at 7 p.m. and will take the form of a pot luck supper. All members are asked to bring a guest.

Curtain Club season ticket holders will be notified by mail during the next few days of an unavoidable change in the advertised programme for this season.

"The Little Hut" will be replacing "Boing, Boing" originally slated for the February production, which has been postponed, theatrical rights being unobtainable at the present time.

There is also a change in the scheduled dates. "The Little Hut" will now run from February 19-22, 26-29.

Announced this week is the purchase of the Herrington Insurance Agency, Suite 2, Lowrie Building, Richmond Hill, by Elgin T. Barrow who will operate it under the name Elgin T. Barrow Insurance Agency.

The Herrington agency has been in existence since 1928, when it was founded as a general insurance agency by the late J. Roy Herrington. Since 1957 its business has been carried on by Miss Agnes Burnett.

Under its new ownership its present and future clients are assured that the same courteous and efficient service to which they are accustomed will be continued.

Elgin Barrow is well known in Richmond Hill where he has lived for 40 years. He attended both public and high schools here and always has shown an intense interest in sports. For 15 years he has contributed to the success of the minor hockey programme in the town, and was a member of the original arena board. He has now returned to this board. For 17 years he has been a volunteer fireman in the town, and was a member of the original Jaycees.

A veteran of four and a half years service with the RCAF, Mr. Barrow spent eight years on the sales staff of General Foods and seven years with Johnson & Johnson. Prior to his air force service he was employed for a time at the H. J. Mills greenhouses.

Married, with two children, David 16 and Diane 13, Mr. Barrow lives at 94 Centre Street East.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Vallance

Wed In United Church Chapel

Large white and yellow chrysanthemums combined with candlelight in the Richmond Hill United Church Chapel made a pretty background for the fall wedding of Miss Gail Dianne Kingsley, daughter of Mrs. Wilfred J. Kingsley and the late Mr. Kingsley, and Mr. Donald Hugh Vallance, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Vallance, Richmond Hill. Rev. Charles G. Higginson officiated.

Mrs. Joseph Gordon of Bradford, the bride's aunt, played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Eve Harwood of Richmond Hill, who sang the Wedding Hymn and O Perfect Love.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John W. Kingsley, the bride was lovely in a white, self-embroidered knitted suit with white satin buttons and trim. Her headress was a crown of white peau de soie with shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and trailing white ribbon centred with rich purple orchids.

The maid of honour was Miss Grethe Dahl of Richmond Hill who wore a gold silk sheath dress with matching leaf shaped headress. She carried a bouquet of small chrysanthemums in autumn shades.

Attending the groom as best man was his older brother Mr. David Vallance. The ushers were Mr. Peter Kingsley and Mr. Edward Vallance.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlour. The bride's mother received the guests in a raspberry red knitted suit with beige accessories and a corsage of baby roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a beige gown with brown accessories and a corsage of chrysanthemums.

The bride's uncle, Mr. Joseph Gordon of Bradford, acted as master of ceremonies and also proposed the toast to the bride. Mrs. W. T. Clubine, the bride's grandmother, presided at the tea table while Miss Dawn Kingsley, Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Glenda Medley and Miss Helen Calder served the guests.

Flying Career
Congratulations to a studious and athletic young resident of Richmond Hill, James Paul Stewart, on the rapid advancement in his chosen career, aviation.
"Jim", aged 20, received his primary and part of his secondary education in Toronto; in grade 11, while attending Northern Secondary School, he was awarded a scholarship, followed later by graduation from Richmond Hill High School.
Signing on for a six-year pilot officer's course with the Royal Canadian Air Force, Jim Stewart in his theoretical examination, ranked third in the class of 40.
He also has 20 hours of solo flying to his credit at Centralia R.C.A.F. base, with transference to the Moose Jaw R.C.A. base in February to further his training.
During his service with Ontario Sea Cadets, Jim's awards of plaques and cups, include several plaques inscribed with his name and "Chief Petty Officer for 1960, H.M.C.S. York" and also one similarly inscribed for 1961.
A tall, handsome cup is also inscribed with his name and "Best Athlete for 1961, H.M.C.S. Acadia."
He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart of Richmond Hill. Mr. Stewart is manager of Becker's Milk, Yonge St. N.

Horticultural Society Award Prizes For '63
Members of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society were presented with prizes for 1963 at their last regular meeting held on January 15 in the public library. Shows Committee Chairman W.J. Ankenman made the presentations.
Receiving prizes for the different categories were: juniors: 1st, Billy Redelmeier; 2nd, Marilyn Bruce; 3rd, Gwen Urquhart. Specimen flowers: 1st, Mrs. F. Titshall; 2nd, Mr. R.D. Court of Honour, Mrs. Geo. Barker.
Chairing this well attended meeting was Mrs. Douglas Boyd, the new president. Following a flower quiz won by Mrs. Ivan Grant, Mr. Robert Little showed colour pictures taken on a recent trip to Hawaii, England, Scotland, Ireland and Denmark - many of them of gardens and parks. Of particular interest were trees, shrubs and flowers, unknown to the audience.

Auxiliary On Active Duty
York Central Hospital is now an active working part of the southern York County community, and volunteer auxiliary members are assuming their normal duties in the scheme of things.
Volunteers have been helping in admitting, emergency, flowers, mail, floats, gift shop, gift cart, anywhere they are needed.
Most gracious comments have been received from the hospital staff, patients, and doctors, about the help volunteers are giving. Their colourful coral smocks are also receiving favourable comment.
The first baby to be born in the hospital was a tiny girl, Mary Christine Turner on December 23, and a silver mug suitably inscribed, was presented, in the name of the auxiliary.
At a meeting held recently at the Richmond Hill Library, Mrs. R. J. Miller, auxiliary president, asked for volunteers to assist with transportation.
Many auxiliary members are willing to serve in the hospital, but are plagued by

Local Family Enjoyed Christmas In Scotland
Mr. and Mrs. G. Carmichael and daughter Anne-Gael of 159 Driscoll Road, Richmond Hill, returned from Scotland after a three week holiday with their families and friends.
They were met at Prestwick Airport by Mr. and Mrs. N. Blackhall, Mrs. Carmichael's sister and brother-in-law.
Most of the three weeks was divided between Mrs. Carmichael's mother, Mrs. Mary Grant of Kirkcaldy, Fife, who spent some time in Canada a few years ago, and with Mr. Carmichael's father, Mr. Tom Carmichael who is 75 years of age and lives in retirement in Freuchie, a quaint and quiet little village about 10 miles out of Kirkcaldy. Both parents were in perfect health and enjoyed the visit as much as the visitors.
A family party was organized for Christmas Day. Guests were parents, brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, uncles and aunts, along with a few personal friends. This was the highlight of the trip, for although the hall and musicians were booked from 6:30 to 11:30 p.m., the party did not break up till 1:30 a.m.
A side trip to Newcastle-on-Tyne was made, where a one-time business associate of Mr. Carmichael, Mr. James Muse and his wife Freda were the perfect hosts. This trip also produced great excitement for daughter Anne-Gael, who got her Christmas wish in a one-year-old Blue Bedlington Terrier. This breed is quite unusual and scarce even in Britain. The puppy was obtained close to the village of Bedlington where the breed originated. The return trip for the addition to the family created some excitement in both Prestwick and Malton Airports. Transportation was simple as Dreena travelled on the same flight as an excess baggage charge and cleared customs and animal departments without difficulty.

The Carmichaels had a busy and hectic time but a most enjoyable and memorable holiday, with the weatherman being most co-operative. Every day was a new adventure and many places too numerous to mention were visited.
One place which should not be missed by persons planning a visit is "Falkland Palace." This royal palace which dates back to the Stuart Royal line was built by Alexander IV a Crusader, is partly in ruins. A section has been rebuilt and is the residence of Major Michael Crichton, Stuart of Falkland, the hereditary Constable and Keeper for Her Majesty the Queen. He is a direct descendant of the Royal Stuarts. Mr. Carmichael Senior is a friend of the keeper and arranged a private tour for the vacationers.
On their return trip, a day and night were spent with very close and personal friends, Mr. Alex Thompson and his wife Jean, who reside in Motherwell. The Thompsons were most kind and travelled to Prestwick Airport to say farewell and complete a most happy visit.
The Carmichaels wish to thank all their friends in the Hill for the good wishes and interest shown before this holiday. They also ask us to say a big "thank you" to all their friends and relatives in Scotland, for making this holiday such a pleasant memory.
