The dance given in the Masonic hall on Friday evening last under the auspices of the Golden Beaver Lodge A.F. & A.M. proved a very enjoyable event. There was a good attendance and the music and all other features were up to the highest standards. All present found the evening a very pleasing one. -

All in Timmins will be pleased to know that W. H. Pritchard is making good progress to recovery of health. He has been at St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, for some time, and yesterday underwent an operation. Reports from Toronto to-day are to the effect that the operation was eminently successful and Mr. Pritchard is evidently well on the way to recovery. His wide circles of friends here will wish the recovery to be both speedy and complete. -
