Russians Fighting Nazis from Dnieper to Urals

(Toronto Telegram)

We don't know which contradiction is the more accurate, the German or the Russian—

We don't know exactly where the fighting is taking place, and it doesn't mean much to us whether it is Smolensk or Miesenzenski.

We don't know exactly how many miles the Germans have advanced—

We don't know any of these things, but we do know the Russians are in there fighting—taking the best the Germans can give, and fighting back—and after three weeks the Germans are not yet in Moscow.

That was the point that we wanted reassurance on, three weeks ago.

Would the Russians stay in there and fight, or at the first German victory throw their hands up like General Weygand, say "The military situation is impossible," and turn the "Kick me" sign toward the toe of the German heel.

The Russians, by their deeds, are giving promise that they will fight the Germans from the Dnieper to the Urals, and if they do that, the Germans will feel sorry that they started anything regardless of the number of victories they may win.

sufficient taxi stands in the town to meet the requirements. Council decided that there was nothing the council could do at the present time. The mayor suggested that if the parking meters were installed there would be a certain amount of control over just such a situation. It was decided that about all the council could do now was to treat each individual application as they saw fit. The petition was filed.

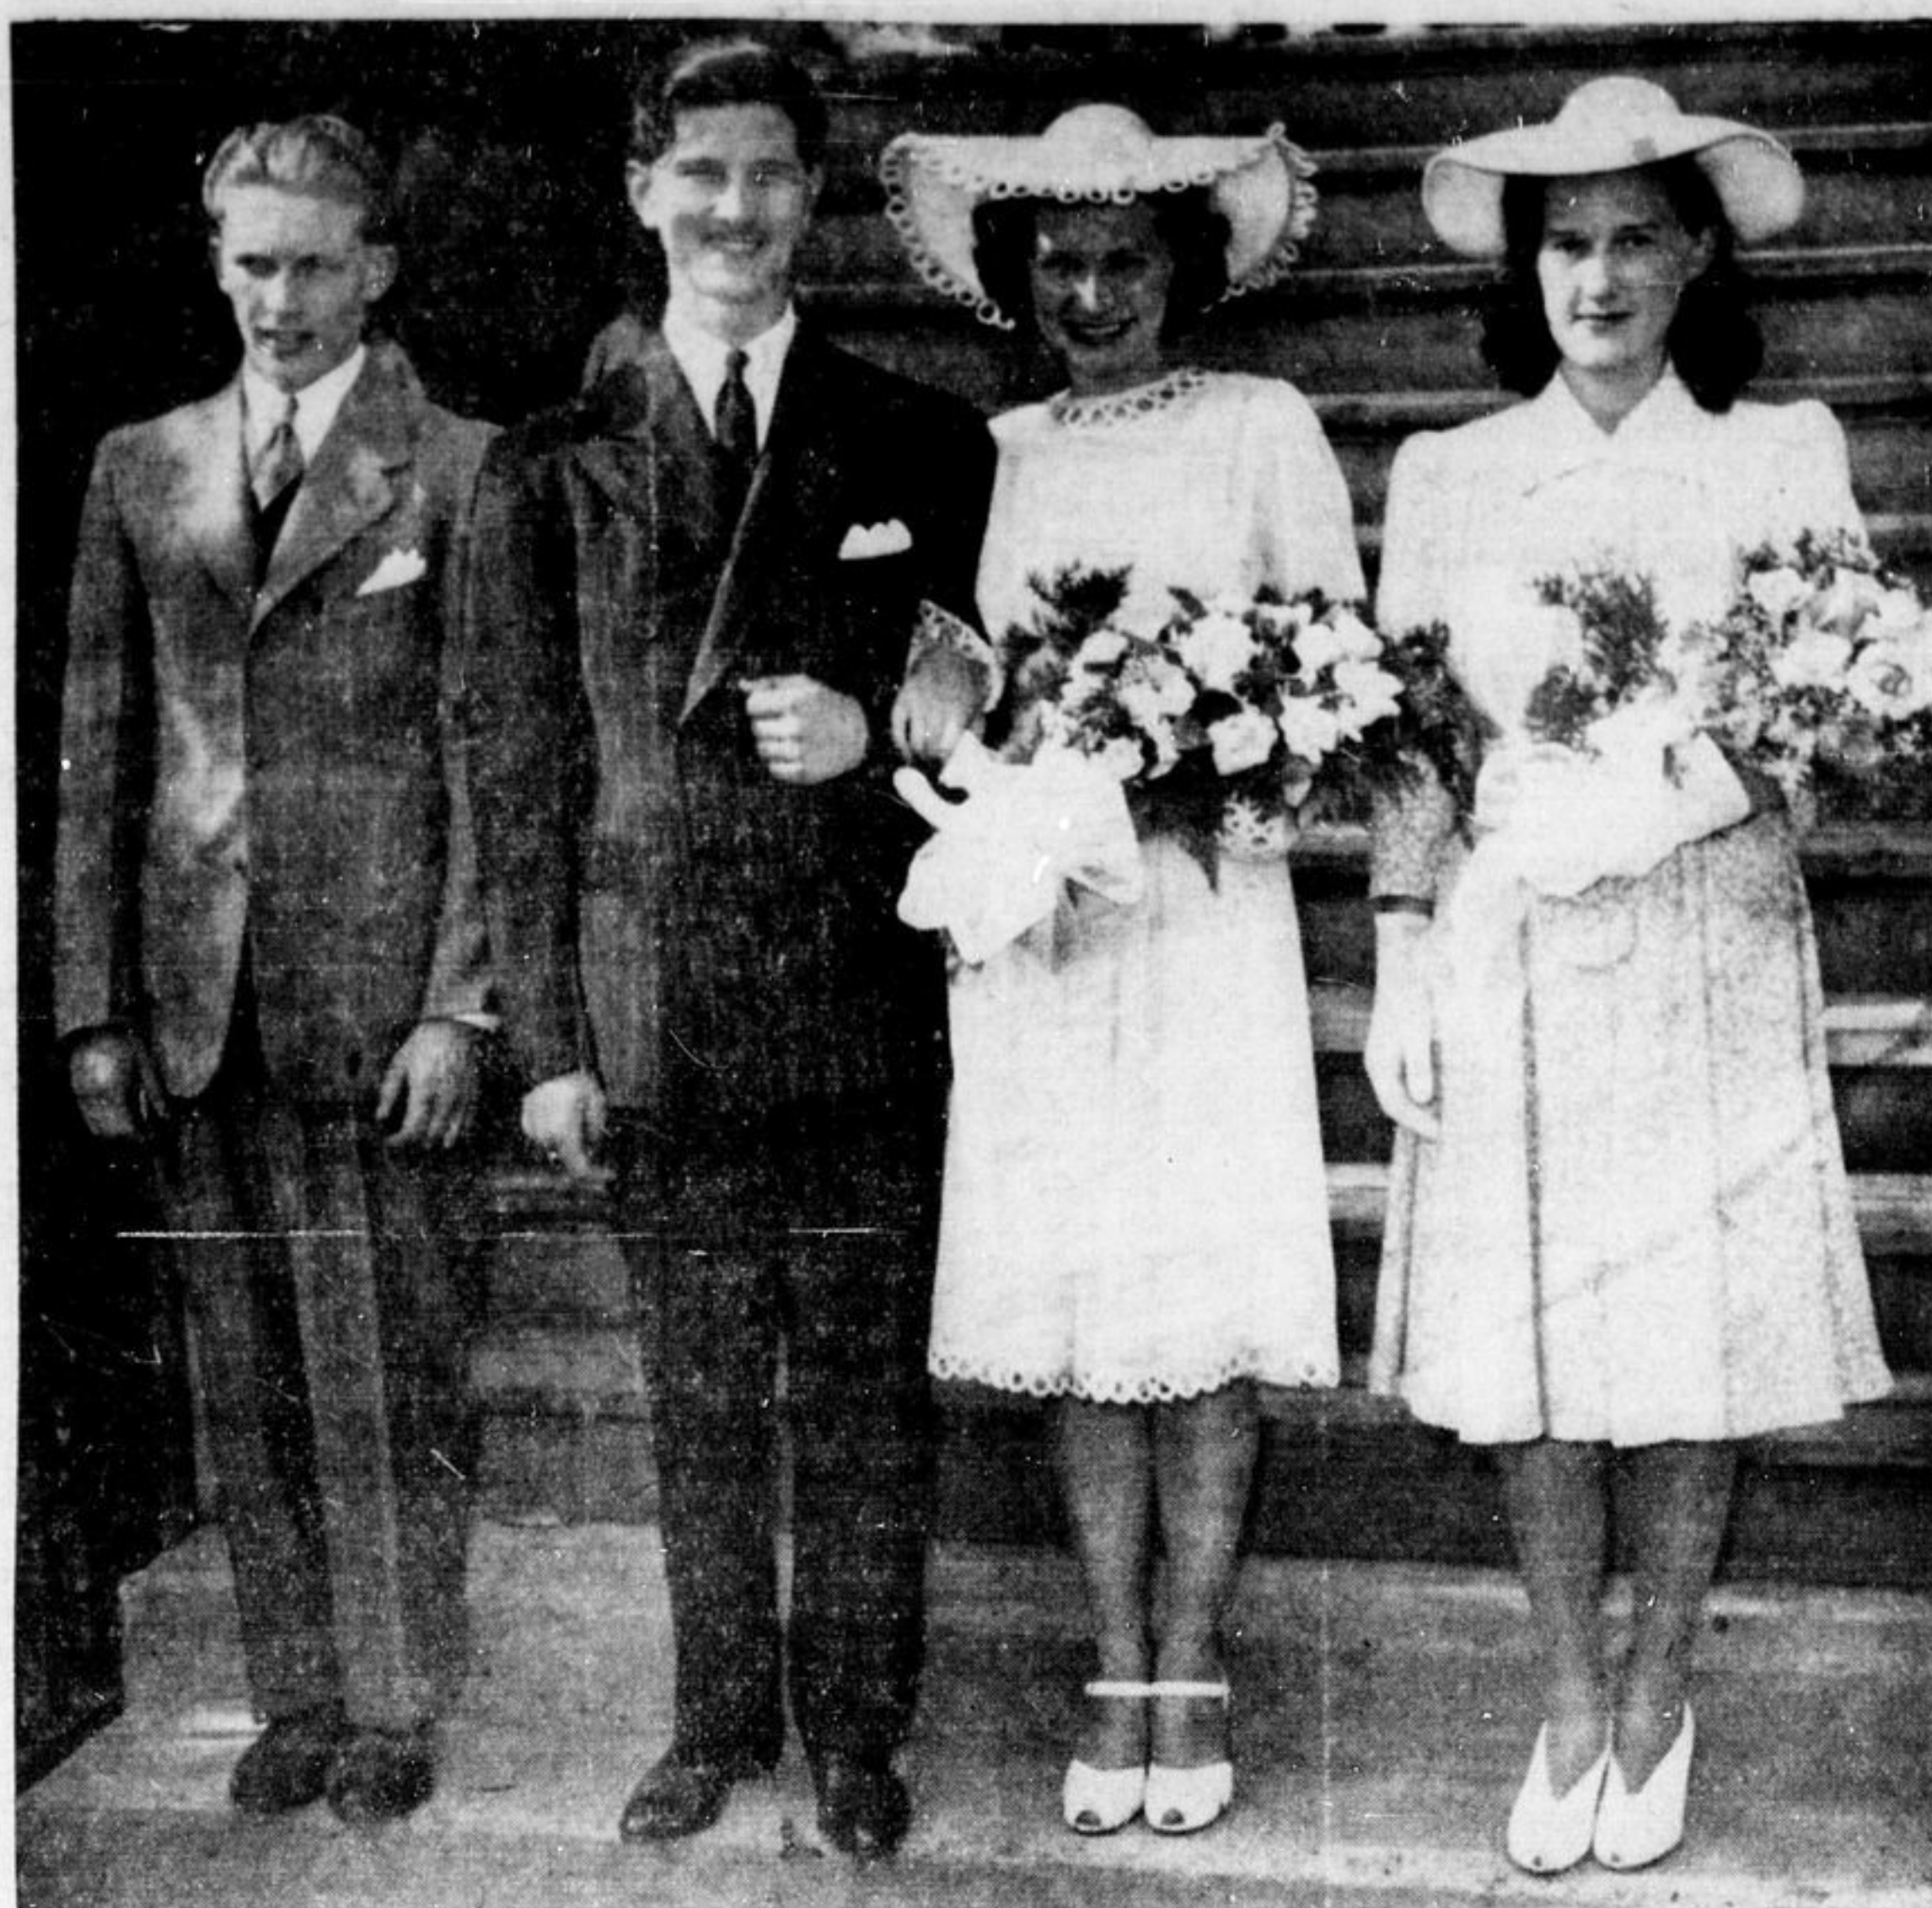

A request was received from the McIntyre Community Building and signed by Bob Crosby, asking the town council for permission to hold a band parade in Timmins on the Civic Holiday, August 4th. The parade would start at ten-fifteen and would circle four blocks of the business section. This request was granted.

A letter was received from the Ontario Fire Marshall, W. J. Scott, asking the town to try and send a representative to the annual meeting of the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs at Peterborough on August 26th. It was stated in the letter that three members of the London, England, Fire Department would be guests at this meeting and their methods of handling bad fires would prove very beneficial to anyone attending the meeting.

The mayor was instructed to issue a proclamation making Monday, August 4th, a civic holiday. A resolution was passed asking the Board of Commissioners of Police to authorize the Timmins Police Department to act as agents of the Hollinger to remove any cars between Highway 67 and the Timmins Golf Club when necessary.

By-law 768, being a by-law to amend by-law 724, was passed. The by-law was in connection with electrical construction. By-law 769, being a by-law to extend Toke street to the town

A by-law was passed authorizing the Timmins Market to open on Saturday August 2nd. The market will be open every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday after August 2nd. The rentals for stalls in the market was also fixed in the by-law. The rentals are $1.50 for one day or $3.00 for one week.

The regular accounts were passed for payment.

"The kindly thoughts we have of other people

For like the flowers they are so swift to fade."

Wedding Monday at the United Church of Popular Couple

Miss Anne Honkala and Mr. Henry Kelneck Married.

Adorned with gladioli, summer flowers and fern the Timmins United Church was the setting for a charming wedding on Monday afternoon at four o'clock, when Miss Ann Emily Honkala, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Honkala, of 58 Balsam street north, was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Joseph Kelneck, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelneck, of Thorold South, Ontario.

The Reverend W. M. Mustard officiated and during the ceremony Mr. Herbert C. Treener presided at the organ. Miss Bernice McGrath, soloist, very pleasingly sang "Because" and "O Promise Me."

The lovely blonde bride entered the church to the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March" and was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length ensemble of turquoise blue mousseline de sole made on softly draped lines. Small rows of lace-effect looping were fashioned into the round neckline, the bishop sleeves and into the hem-line of the skirt which fell in tiny gathers from the fitted waistline. The bride wore a large picture hat to match (which also bore an edging of the looping), white sandals, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

Miss Phyllis McConnell was maid-of-honour, attractively attired in a redingote frock of dusky pink and white printed silk crepe, fashioned on simply tailored lines with three-quarter length sleeves in the redingote and a slightly-flared skirt in the dress. Her wide-brimmed hat was of white felt, and she wore white net gloves and white shoes. She carried an arm bouquet of Talsman roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The groomsmen were Mr. Larry Kartio, while Mr. Eugene Merikallio acted as usher.

Following the ceremony friends were received in the Auditorium of the McIntyre Community Building. For the occasion the bride's mother chose a redingote ensemble with navy coat, white crepe dress, white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Friends of the bride and her mother served the buffet lunch.

Serving at the head table were Mrs. R. M. Wynne and Mrs. Karl Merikallio, while Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. William Goranson, Mrs. J. W. Olsson, Miss Mary Palangio, Miss Nelma Johnson, Mrs. William Sillanpaa, and Mrs. C. V. Sillanpaa poured tea and coffee at the other tables. Other ladies who assisted with the serving were Mrs. J. Korri, Mrs. A. Lehtisalo, Mrs. O. Kohonen, Mrs. E. Valenius, Mrs. I. Makynen, Mrs. V. Ranga, Misses Helen Korri and Sarah Rauha and Mrs. George Luopa. Mrs. J. Aho cut and served the wedding cake after the bride and groom cut the first slice.

During the early part of the evening Miss Vieno Kautto, rendered two delightful vocal solos.

In the evening the bride and groom left by motor for the groom's home, Thorold South, Toronto, Windsor, Montreal, the bride travelling in a turquoise green and white ensemble with white draped jacket, accessories. They will reside in Timmins on their return.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. K. Jalonen, Sudbury; Mr. and Mrs. T. Tuori, son "Teddy," and daughter "Tillie," of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Salfi, Niagara Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Soderston, Iroquois Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Mobbs, Iroquois Falls; Col. MacParlane and Adjutant Golden, of Montreal.

which completed the picture . . . "Henry" is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelneck, of Thorold South, known to many friends as "Hank" . . . while "Ann" is known to many through this column . . . and their many friends will join in wishing them every happiness for the future.

Wedding bells rang out for Jeanette Legault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Legault, who was united in marriage to Conrad Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Beauchamp on Monday morning July 14th . . . and Jeanne D'Arc Garant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Garant, who became the bride of Louis Charbonneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Charbonneau, who were also married on Monday morning July 14th . . . Dropped Between Stitches extends congratulations and best wishes to these couples.

May we again extend wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bobenbistan who were united in marriage on Tuesday morning at the Church of the Nativity . . . Mrs. Bobenbistan was the former Mary Freda Hurst of South Bend, Indiana . . . Father Bobenbistan of Hamilton, brother of the groom, officiated at the wedding.

They're Even Doing Without Pockets in England Now

(From the Leeds Yorkshire Post)
Because tailors find that for every 20 coupons' worth of clothes they sell, they may themselves not get more than 18 coupons' worth of replacements, suggestions have been made that trimmings, linings and pockets of men's clothes may be drastically cut down. Reduction in the number of pockets will be a hardship for most men. With two trousers pockets, one hip, one fob, fur waistcoat, two outside jacket pockets, one inside and a breast pocket (not to mention the pockets in an overcoat), men have long been able to carry into adult life the schoolboy's odd penchant for the accumulation of miscellaneous treasures.

What with handkerchiefs, pencils, key rings, copper, silver, notebook, visiting cards, wallet, string, bus tickets, cigarette case (alas, empty), matches, possibly a comb, maybe a pipe and pouch, letters, bills, golf tees, and a hundred other items a man's pockets would put the cornucopia to shame if they were all emptied at once.

Yet this never prevented lofty masculine sneers at woman's ridiculous handbag mania. Maybe if the clothes of the future are to be restricted to a utilitarian couple of pockets, men will have to take up the handbag, or at the least the knotted handkerchief method of carrying impedimenta. Then we may hear less criticism of women's magpie instinct.

Kitchen Shower in Novel Style for Bride-to-be

Miss Ethel Elliott, bride-to-be, was a guest of honour on Tuesday evening at a kitchen shower held at the home of Miss Mable Higgenbotham, 114 Main avenue, with Miss Marjorie Darrow as joint hostess. Garden flowers adorned the home which made a lovely setting for the event.

The novel shower consisted of gifts for every day of the week, Monday's gift represented wash-day; Tuesday, ironing day; Wednesday, mending day; Thursday, shopping day; Friday, baking and cleaning day. The gifts to represent the various days were presented in Monday's wash basket.

Among those who attended were:—Helen Bacon, Doris Hamilton, Edna Wilson, Marian Darrow, Jean McEaney, Virginia McIvor, Mary Stock, Mrs. T. Leck, Mrs. D. McNabb, Mrs. A. Laprairie. Mrs. Bladecow and Mrs. A. Humphrey were unable to attend but sent gifts.

AND NO COMPLAINTS

Three little girls sent out of London found a new home at a farmhouse. They asked to be allowed to share the same room. Their hostess agreed, and one of the girls wrote home jubilantly: "We have dogs and calves and horses and pigs and cows and chickens and we all sleep in the same room."—Exchange.
