

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

More than eight ditty bags were filled on Friday evening. The Ladies were more than generous at the shower held by the Red Shield at the Salvation Army hall. There were at least twenty women there, each donating a knitted article from the Red Shield, towel and wash cloth, tins of fruit, soup, and juices, candy, gum, combs, games, reading material, everything necessary to a boy in the Navy. And each little parcel for the ditty bag, was wrapped in white tissue paper, with Christmas seals, to represent a Christmas parcel. Those sailor lads away from home will certainly appreciate those little cheers at Christmas, so keep up the good work ladies.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. de Wolf of 103 Tuke street who celebrated their 30th anniversary on Saturday. Mr. de Wolf, who is the manager of the Arrow Land and Logging Co., had been away for a few weeks near Hears, and returned Saturday afternoon, to be present with his wife for that special day. Wedding bells rang for them 30 years ago at Spokane, Washington, on Nov. 7th. There are two children, a boy in the army and a girl working out west.

Saw Bertha Sheridan looking very smart and trim in her air-force blue uniform, in town this week. She has recently graduated from Rockcliffe, and had been stationed at St. Thomas, but her present post, on her return, is still unknown. AW2 B. Sheridan was a recruit of September 25th, and this is her first leave home since joining. We sincerely wish Bertha all the luck in the world in her new field.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkin, 114 Tamarack street, were host and hostess to Mrs. Jenkin's brother Sergeant Major F. Roberts, R.F.A., of Orillia, over the week-end. He had a very enjoyable stay too, climaxed by a social evening held Saturday night at the Jenkin home, where friends dropped in to enjoy a pleasant evening. There were games, dancing, singing, highlighted by a delicious lunch served by the hostess. Bringing to an end a perfect week-end for Sergeant Major Roberts, but we hope he may be able to return to town again for a much longer stay.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilfred Cyr, who were married on Tuesday, at the Notre Dame de Lourdes Church at 8:30 a.m. The bride is the former Marie Esther Charette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Charette and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cyr, both families of Timmins. Father Deschene was the officiating priest at the ceremony, and there was a quiet reception at the home of the bride at 44 Commercial. And best wishes to another couple who took wedding vows the same day at the same church but at 5 a.m. To Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brazeau, we wish all the happiness in the world. The bride is the former Aurelie Gurnel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gurnel, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brazeau, of Mid dieton avenue. Father Morin officiated. Wedding breakfast followed, at the groom's home.

To Mr. and Mrs. Lauri Mikkola a newly-married couple of last Thursday, Doris wishes all the happiness and best wishes in the world. Thursday evening at 6 p.m. they took wedding vows followed by a wedding supper at the groom's home in Schumacher. The bride is the former Milga Rachel Hietala, of South Porcupine. A large reception was held in South Porcupine in the evening, where many out-of-town guests were present. And they received the loveliest gifts. At present the young couple reside at South Porcupine.

All members and friends take note that a meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 18th, at the Hollinger Hall, commencing at 2:30 p.m. All visitors are welcome. The programme is in charge of Mrs. S. L. Whitehead, and should prove very interesting, so ladies, keep this date in mind. But to mention a little of the work the Institute is doing. Last Saturday, at the home of Mrs. C. Briggs, 19 Commercial avenue, the members packed 20 boxes for boys overseas, containing all kinds of gifts of food, comfort, pleasure, and many other necessary articles. They plan on meeting again within the next week to pack a great many parcels for the armed forces in Canada. This worthy deed is indeed worth a great deal of mention. The evening was completed by a lovely lunch, served by the hostess.

At 9:30 a.m. this morning, wedding vows were taken at the Notre Dame de Lourdes Church by Henri Alexandre Morin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexandre Morin, and Sarah Rapier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rapier. Rather a quiet wedding, though, but very pretty.

And a half an hour earlier, 9 a.m. to be exact at the Notre Dame de Lourdes Church, this morning, Clemence Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Aristide Clement, became the bride of Gerald Keyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keyes, Timmins. An all white wedding, with two bridesmaids, Clemence making a striking picture in white satin and tulle. Wedding dinner followed with wedding supper tonight, and a reception at the Hollinger Hall in the evening. A large number of guests are expected in the evening, to wish the bride and groom all the happiness in the world. There will be dancing and refreshments.

To say she was liked by all, would not be saying enough for Mrs. Tomney, of Toronto, former district commissioner of the Girl Guides. She is one of the most loved and charming ladies that one would ever have the honour of meeting. It was a great loss to the Guides, when, last year, Mrs. Tomney underwent a serious operation, so that she had to give up all her Guiding. Although she has made a complete recovery, she never returned to her position as district commissioner. But on her visit to Timmins, at the Guide Rally held last Saturday at the Masonic Hall, Mrs. Tomney was presented with a lovely handbag, as a token of the love and esteem in which she is held. She was welcomed by the district commissioner, Miss D. Wilkins, who expressed her happiness and the Guides' to have Mrs. Tomney among them again.

A centre piece of pale mauve mums and two tall silver candle holders formed the setting for the "At Home" held at the home of Mrs. G. S. Lowe, 11 Hemlock street, on Wednesday afternoon. This was under the auspices of the I.O.D.E. A dainty lunch of salad, tea biscuits, cookies, cake, hot chocolate, or postum, was served to the guests efficiently and charmingly by the serving committee, while the kitchen end was carried out expertly by the refreshment committee. During the afternoon, a musical programme was presented, which included vocal solos, piano accompaniments, and a violin solo. The guests were received one by one with a smile and a word of greeting by Mrs. G. S. Lowe and Mrs. J. Keene. On the whole, the afternoon was very successful, each guest voting the afternoon to be one of the most pleasant ever attended. All the members of the I.O.D.E., and particularly the ones on the committees for the afternoon, deserve the highest of praise for holding such a pleasant event.

Weekly Meeting of Mattagami Ladies' Club

Mrs. P. Trevenna Hostess. Celebrates Birthday and is Presented with Gifts.

Members of the Mattagami Ladies' Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. P. Trevenna, 11 Main avenue, to hold their weekly meet. There was double celebration as that day was the occasion of Mrs. Trevenna's birthday.

The most part of the evening was spent with knitting, followed by a dainty lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. Trevenna, and Mrs. L. Landers.

The weekly draw was conducted by Miss Gloria Trevenna, and was won by Mr. Henry St. Germaine, a guest for lunch.

Each guest presented Mrs. Trevenna with a charming cup and saucer as a birthday gift.

Those present were Mrs. A. Guindon, Mrs. L. Landers, Mrs. M. Wallingford, Mrs. R. Lazenby, Mrs. G. Allison, Mrs. E. Young, a guest from South Porcupine, Mrs. N. Cameron, Mrs. B. Elies, and Mrs. P. Trevenna.

The next meeting will take place on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. Guindon, 14 Main avenue.

Wedding of Clemence Clement and Gerald Keyes This Morning

Wedding at 9 a.m. Wedding Dinner at Bride's Home. Wedding Supper at Groom's Home. About Thirty Guests Present for Reception.

Pink and white flowers were arranged on the background of the Notre Dame de Lourdes Church this morning at 9 a.m., to form the setting for the marriage of Clemence Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Aristide Clement, 52 Commercial avenue, and Gerald Keyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keyes, 91 Birch north. Officiating priest: was Father Morin, while organ music was ably supplied by Father Deschene. Throughout the ceremony, songs were rendered by the church choir.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore traditional white satin, long torso, fashioned on princess lines, long sleeves, with a high beaded neckline. Her floor-length white tulle veil was caught at her head by a wreath of white flowers, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Viola Danis, and Lucille Meunier both attractively attired in pink tulle gowns, with gored skirts, short puffed sleeves, and elbow-length pink gloves. Their pink finger-tip veils were caught at their heads by three little pink flowers, and their bouquets were made up of American beauty roses.

Messrs. Jack Gravelle and Nelson Danis attended the groom as best men.

At noon today, a wedding dinner was held at the bride's parental home, 52 Commercial avenue, where relatives and friends were entertained. Receiving the many guests was the bride's mother, lovely in a pink, 2-piece afternoon frock, and wearing a white rose corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Keyes, in a navy crepe afternoon dress, with a corsage of white roses.

This evening, a wedding supper will be held at the groom's parental home, 91 Birch north, for the couple's many friends. At 9 p.m. a reception will be held at the Hollinger Hall, where dancing will be enjoyed, music being supplied by Ken Tomkinson and his band. Refreshments will complete the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyes will reside at 153 Commercial avenue.

The bride's and groom's gift to the bridesmaids and best men were wedding pictures.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was entertained at a miscellaneous shower held by her mother, Mrs. Clement, at her home.

Identification System Costs Less Than $200.00

Kirkland Lake is inclined to boast that it has a completely equipped criminal identification system at a total outlay of less than $200.00. It may not be the most complete and up-to-date of its kind in any large town of Canada (Timmins perhaps, has that distinction) but it is probably the least costly in view of its effectiveness and completeness. The Timmins system has been highly complimented by experts for its value and effectiveness. It costs more than the Kirkland Lake one, but the cost was very modest here and it was not noticed, as it was built up gradually, largely through the interest and effort of Officer Geo. Archambault, who is a recognized expert in fingerprinting and photography.

At Kirkland Lake, as here, the need for modern criminal identification bureau methods was very evident as the town grew and the criminal element began to show its activities. Inspector Dymont was impressed with the need and was backed by Chief Pinegar, just as the chiefs here helped and supported the work. Inspector Dymont started with finger printing and then went on to photography. His first equipment was elementary, but by patience and careful selection he has been able to gather a modern system, the outside cost of all paid for the municipality being $200.00, according to The Northern News last week. The system at Kirkland Lake is considered a good one. The only place it has Timmins beaten is in the cost, and the cost for Timmins has been small enough, that any difference in cost is fully made up here by the perfection of the identification bureau system.

Ladies' Auxiliary to Hold Social Evening Wednesday, Nov 18

Prize Winners at Weekly Whist Drive and Comfort Fund Tea.

Tuesday's whist drive was very successful at the Legion Hall with the following prize winners: Ladies—1st, Mrs. Stonehouse; 2nd, Mrs. E. Beaulieu; 3rd, Mrs. J. Laker; gentlemen—1st, Mr. Jos. Hefferman; 2nd, Mrs. J. Shaw; 3rd, Mrs. L. Harting.

On Wednesday, the ladies' Auxiliary met for their weekly comfort fund tea at the Legion Hall.

Those present were Mrs. W. A. Devine, Mrs. L. Nicholson, Mrs. B. Richards, Mrs. J. Precious, Mrs. E. Tilley, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. E. Charlton, Mrs. A. Kettle, Mrs. R. Hardy, Mrs. W. Wilkinson, Mrs. F. Curtis, Mrs. S. Wheeler, Mrs. H. Pope, Mrs. J. McGarry and baby Margaret.

A social is to be held in the Legion Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 18th, for the Auxiliary members and their husbands, the Legionnaires and their wives, so there will be no comfort fund tea on Wednesday as there has usually been.

Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital Have Much Work

Preparing for Emergency as Well as for Regular Needs.

A meeting of the Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital was held Nov. 2nd in the Nurses' Auditorium with the president, Mrs. W. J. McCoy, in the chair. The other officers present were: Mrs. C. McCann, 1st vice; Mrs. G. Belanger, 2nd vice; Mrs. I. K. Pierce, secretary; Mrs. C. Thompson, treasurer. The conveners, most of whom were present at the meeting, are: Mrs. Prout, Mrs. L. Heplerin, Mrs. C. Briggs, Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. J. Reynolds, Mrs. Dr. Honey, Mrs. J. P. Burke, Mrs. A. Malouin, Mrs. Valcourt, Mrs. G. Oltsher, Mrs. L. Beauséigle, Mrs. (Dr.) Irvine. This list does not include the conveners which the Italian ladies will be appointing for their groups, or the conveners the Polish ladies will select their groups. Then too, the Finnish ladies, as formerly will arrange for a conveners of their group.

The important business on the agenda was the date of the first "work" meeting of the season. Monday, Nov. 16th, at 2 p.m., was selected.

The duty of each conveners is to notify the several ladies in her group when there is to be a meeting of the Auxiliary. As it is difficult to contact all ladies interested in this work the conveners will be very glad to add names to their lists any time.

The work accomplished by the members of the Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital is important and valuable at any time, but doubly so right now as the hospital has been notified that our "municipality could not be regarded as immune from the risk of enemy action." In a letter from the Director of Medical Services (C.D.C.), Toronto, the hospital was advised to be ready for any eventuality. This means having emergency equipment of various kinds in reserve, ready for immediate use if called upon. Surgical dressings will form a part of this equipment and this is where the Auxiliary will be able to lend assistance—to help prepare this emergency supply as well as augment the supplies needed daily at the hospital.

Former Resident of Camp Passes in Welland Hospital

George C. Murphy, Popular Resident in Early Days, Buried at Fonthill.

Not only in Schumacher where he was for so many years a popular and valued citizen, but also through the Porcupine and in the whole North where he was well known and highly esteemed, there will be deep regret and sorrow at the news of the death of Mr. Geo. C. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Murphy were among the first residents of the community of Schumacher, and always took a helpful and valuable part in the life of the town and district. The late Mr. Murphy was a resident of Schumacher for many years and during that time he was active in public, fraternal and church circles. He was a member of the Schumacher school board for several terms, an active and honoured member of the Masonic Lodge, and in other circles took active and helpful part. His frank but genial and quiet Scottish character, with his good humour and honesty, won him wide circles of friends. For a number of years the late Mr. Murphy was assayer at the McIntyre Mine, and later carried on a private assay business of his own. About fourteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left Schumacher to take up residence at Unionville, near Toronto, where they have been residing since. In the intervening years they have paid many visits to Schumacher and Timmins and were always warmly welcomed here by their hosts of old friends who sincerely mourn the passing of Geo. C. Murphy.

At Thanksgiving time Mr. and Mrs. Murphy went over from Unionville to spend the holiday with their daughter (Mrs. Warner) at Fonthill, near Welland. There Mr. Murphy who had recently suffered a heart attack, was taken ill, and it was found necessary for him to go into the Welland hospital. He died in the hospital on Thursday of last week.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon with full Masonic honours. Interment was made at Fonthill cemetery.

The late Geo. C. Murphy was born at Muirhead, Glasgow, Scotland, and was sixty years of age at the time of his death. He was the type of Scotsman that makes his country esteemed around the earth—shrewd, honorable, competent, quiet but friendly, and with a sense of genial humour.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. F. Warner (Christie) of Welland, and to these and the other relatives and friends the sincere sympathy of all will go out in their loss.

A Cordial Welcome to All

Mrs. J. A. Platt Honoured on Occasion of Birthday

The home of Mrs. J. A. Platt, 40 Patricia Blvd., was the scene of a happy gathering last Friday evening, when a number of her friends gathered to honour her on the occasion of her birthday.

An enjoyable evening was spent playing cards. Mrs. Platt then served a dainty lunch, after which Miss Dorothy Hudson played the piano and all joined in a merry sing-song.

Mrs. Platt was presented with a number of lovely gifts.

Among these present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holland, Mrs. B. Pecore, Mrs. L. Childs, Mrs. J. Robinson, Miss Dorothy Hudson, Miss Berna McPhail, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Platt.

Regular Meet of Home League on Wednesday

Members of the Home League met on Wednesday afternoon at the Salvation Army Hall for their regular meeting. The meeting took the form of a shower with each person donating an article, to be sold at the sale the League is having on Dec. 2nd. Articles consisted of aprons, novelties, and knitted goods. During the afternoon, the ladies spent their time doing fancy work and knitting, and to complete the afternoon, they were served a delicious lunch by Mrs. Paterson and Mrs. A. White.

The meeting was brought to a close with the Lord's Prayer and the next meet takes place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.
