

Weddings Of Interest

Martin — Larche

St. Anthony's Cathedral decorated with Summer flowers and lighted tapers was the setting for the wedding recently of Jean Larche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Larche to Henry Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Martin.

The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Father Macabee. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a suit of gold crepe gabardine and white accessories and her corsage was of blush pink roses.

She was attended by Mrs. Armand Martin as matron of honor and Mr. Martin was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was held at the Grand Hotel where the bride's mother welcomed the guests wearing an afternoon dress of pale blue crepe with black accessories and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a blue printed jersey afternoon dress, black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Later, the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Kirkland Lake. Gifts to the attendants were a pair of silver earrings to the matron of honor and a cigarette case to the best man.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Arleen Quesnel and Mrs. Babe Martin.

Bednis — Quesnel

Tall lighted tapers shining amidst standards of Summer flowers decorated the altars of St. Anthony's Cathedral for the marriage on Wednesday morning of Aileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quesnel to Eddie Bednis, son of Mrs. Bednis and the late Mr. Bednis.

Father Brunette officiated at the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Estelle Boutin. During the signing of the register, Miss Agatha Chartrand sang Ave Maria and Mr. Frank Bolvin sang Panis Angelicus.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage and was lovely in a gown of ivory tulle with fitted bodice, wide shirred band and off the shoulder neckline. The softly gathered skirt featuring a lace trimmed peplum fell into a graceful train. Her circular veil of white net was caught to a coronet of large pearls and she carried a white leather bound prayer book from which fell pink streamers entwined with dainty rosebuds. She also wore the gift of the groom, a single strand of pearls.

She was attended by Miss Nora Shields and Miss Theresa Pitre as bridesmaids who wore identical gowns fashioned of tulle in pink and turquoise respectively; fashioned with fitted bodice, with off the shoulder necklines the front trimmed with matching velvet flow rs, short puffed sleeves and full bouffant skirts. Their head-dress was of matching net falling to the waist and caught with net scalloped crowns and they carried bouquets of Summer flowers.

The best man was Walter Bednis, brother of the groom and the ushers were D'Arcy McNamara and Chester Michalak.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Algoma Hotel where the guests were welcomed by the bride's mother, wearing an afternoon dress

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stickley announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion Gwendolyn, to Joseph Lawrence Lafrenier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lafrenier. The wedding will take place in the rectory of the Church of the Nativity, the twenty second of September.

Chadwick — Swain

The rectory of the Church of the Nativity was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday morning, August 23rd, when Rev. J. R. O'Gorman united in marriage Veronica Martha Swain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swain to Rafe Gordon Chadwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Chadwick, Regina, Saskatchewan.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin on process in a, fashioned with plain satin yoke in a drop shoulder effect. Her full length veil of tulle d'illusion was caught up in a coronet of white gladioli and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white gladioli.

The maid of honor, Miss Nadine O'Connor, cousin of the bride wore a pale green gown, fashioned with bodice of moire taffeta, full nylon skirt with moire taffeta bustle. She wore pink elbow length gloves and her headpiece was a wreath of pink gladioli. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

The groom was attended by Omer Swain, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the G. V. Hotel where the bride's mother received wearing an afternoon dress of pale blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. O'Connor in a two-piece turquoise suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. A reception was held at the home of the bride following the wedding breakfast.

Later the couple left for a trip to Muskoka. For travelling the bride wore a grey suit with grey hat and red accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and gifts to the attendants were a gold bracelet to the maid of honor and a Parker pen to the groomsmen.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. Evans, Mrs. Harry Barker, Miss Dorothy Barker, Mr. Harry Dixon and daughter Edith.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Jean Prest and Miss Lillian Dorschner, Mrs. H. Morgan, Toronto and Mrs. M. Black of Timmins.

Horticultural Society Presents Exhibition On Monday and Tuesday

Amateur gardeners, bakers, sewers and those interested in embroidery work, tatting, crochet, knitting and a dozen and on other things throughout the Porcupine Camp will be looking forward to the annual exhibition of the Horticultural Society, to be held in the McIntyre Arena on Monday and Tuesday. For growers of vegetables, flowers and fruit it will be the climax of a season of hard and careful work.

Much can be said of the influence of the Society now in its 23rd year. Formed by a small group of enthusiasts, the Porcupine Horticultural Society is a thriving organization, striving to beautify the town and to foster horticulture among its citizens. Today total membership is in the hundreds.

Among the activities listed on the Society's program for fulfillment are many ambitious projects. Perhaps first on the list is the promotion of horticulture among the youthful residents of the town, to teach them the fine points of cultivating trees, fruits and vegetables. Another enterprise is the planning and landscaping of the main approach to Timmins.

This year there will be the usual classes for entries of annual and perennial flowers, small fruits and all kinds of vegetables. Besides these there will be the household Science Section for the ladies of Timmins and district to show their skill with a needle and the tastiness of their culinary accomplishments.

Mrs. Van Rassel, 10 Commercial Ave. is visiting with her son and daughter-in-law at their cottage at Ram Lake, near moonbeam.

Her many friends in town are pleased to see Mrs. Wm. Ashley home again from Toronto where she has been receiving medical treatment.

Miss Joan Boyton has returned to her home in Toronto after attending the Summer School of Figure Skating at McIntyre's Arena.

Dr. and Mrs. Brodie and family who have spent the Summer months in the district have returned to their home in Calgary.

Mr. Frank Currie and daughter Sonia have returned to their home in Montreal after spending the last seven weeks in Schumacher.

Miss Barbara Taplan has returned to New York after spending the Summer months in the district.

Freddie Mesot, professional of the New York Skating Club has left for his Summer home at Gravenhurst after spending the last seven weeks in town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King Honored At Evening Party

On the occasion of their twenty fifth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King were honoured with a surprise party given by their daughter Vera Jane, and a group of old-time friends, many of whom were at the wedding twenty five years ago, August 21st, 1922.

The warm summer weather had brought the lawn and garden to a perfect condition and it was in this beautiful setting that Mr. and Mrs. King chose to be at home on this occasion. Although the rain had threatened earlier in the day, the evening was perfect and a gentle breeze stirred the pretty summer dresses of the ladies, and served to allay the oppressive heat of the day.

The large lawn, bordered by tall birches and evergreens was softly illuminated by high flood-lights, giving the effect of moon-light on the flower beds and decorative garden furniture, and on the friends who were strolling there.

The supper table was set at the head of the green lawn, against a background of dark evergreen trees, and large bed of orange lilies just bursting into bloom, and was centred with the large decorated Anniversary wedding cake, gift of daughter Vera. One end of the table was graced with the very beautiful six-piece silver tea service, which was presented to Mr. and Mrs. King by their friends. This was presided over by Mrs. S. R. McCoy, who had been organist at the wedding in 1922. At the opposite end of the table Mrs. A. H. Cooke poured coffee from a silver coffee urn.

In a basement room, opening directly onto the lawn was the cocktail bar, in charge of Mr. S. R. McCoy, who had many willing helpers. Assisted by Mr. Don Howe.

Those who signed the guest book were: Mrs. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Darling, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Maitland McCheyney, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green, Mr. W. M. Widdifield, Mr. and Mrs. James McGhie, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Molesley, Mr. J. F. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Gillies, Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Simms, Mrs. E. M. Howse, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gurnell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Booker, Mr. and Mrs. L. Halperin, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Labow, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weinstein, Mr. Verner Nelly, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reid, Mrs. Helen Moore, Miss Katherine Millard, Miss Mamie Borland, Mrs. Rega Borland, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Vary, Mr. Conrad Charette and Mr. Allan Aistrop.

Unable to attend, but contributing to the beautiful gifts were other members of the Post Office staff, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Blackman, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gadsby, Mrs. G. H. F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Shantz, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Ostrosner, Rev. and Mrs. R. Chidwick, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Purdon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Skelly, Mrs. Bea Cran, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. F. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. T. Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Skavjem, Mrs. Beatrice McInnis, Mr. Allan McInnis, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bull, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Langdon, Mrs. M. Shepherd, Mrs. Marjory Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Thompson, Mrs. Verner Nelly and Mrs. Jim Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. King sent pieces of wedding cake, by husbands Jim and Verner, to Aileen Parker and Hattie Nelly with best wishes for a speedy recovery to good health.
