FACTS ABOUT YOUR OWN UNIVERSITY

FOUNDED IN 1911

Waterloo Lutheran University, Canada's only degree-granting institution at university level controlled by the Lutheran church, developed from a small seminary dedicated over fifty years ago. Through its arts college, Waterloo Lutheran University offers a three-year general arts program, and four-year honors programs in twenty-two major fields of study. Enrollments exceeded twelve hundred last year. Waterloo's beautiful rolling campus is located in an attractive residential area.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Waterloo University College, the liberal arts faculty of Waterloo Lutheran University, is a coeducational college open to qualified students regardless of race, color, or creed. Since 1924 the college has produced many eminent graduates. Students from WUC have received some of the continent's highest scholastic awards. Canada Council grants for graduate studies, Woodrow Wilson Fellowships, and scholarships from foreign universities are frequently awarded to Waterloo students. The serious student can develop his potential on the Waterloo campus.

SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES

Basketball, hockey, and football, all have a place on the sports program of Waterloo University College. Carefully coached teams compete in the inter-varsity leagues and have made their mark in previous seasons. Under the guidance of the Director of Student Activities, all manner of clubs and groups keep the social calendar active. The A-Cappella Choir, Glee Club, German Band, and the Purple and Gold Revue, develop musical and theatrical talent. The Homecoming weekend and Ice Carnival are red letter days on the students' calendar.

COSTS

Waterloo University College offers an unusual value in a liberal arts education. A constant stewardship responsibility assumed by the Board of Governors has enabled the institution to offer a superior academic program at a substantial saving. Tuition is $380 a year; room in a residence from $200; meals in the dining room $300 (5 days a week). Fees in detail are listed in the current calendar.

FINANCIAL AIDS

A variety of financial aids are available to Waterloo students. These include scholarships, bursaries, loans, and campus employment. Special assistance designed to aid Lutheran students includes a $100 deduction from the regular tuition fee and additional consideration for the children of pastors. The Twin Cities of Kitchener and Waterloo offer many work opportunities to students. Our Placement Office will advise you on possibilities for part-time and summer employment.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Waterloo University College offers qualified students a liberal education in a community of higher learning that acknowledges Jesus Christ as Divine Lord and Savior. WUC is an educational institution of the Lutheran Church in America and is operated by the Eastern Canada Synod. Students of many religious faiths pursue their studies on this Lutheran campus. Student life at Waterloo is designed to achieve high scholastic attainment and provide an ethical, moral, and spiritual basis for life, rooted in the Christian faith.

ACCREDITATION

Waterloo Lutheran University as an accredited member of the National Council of Canadian Universities and Colleges, the Association of Canadian Schools of Commerce and Business Administration, and of a number of other professional accrediting organizations. It is an active member and participant in numerous professional, educational, and learned societies.

THE SEMINARY

Waterloo Lutheran Seminary is the faculty of theology of Waterloo Lutheran University. Three of every four ordained ministers in the Eastern Canada Synod graduated from Waterloo Lutheran Seminary. Theological students from all parts of Canada and many other countries have been educated at the Seminary. From Waterloo they have gone out into all the world preaching the Word of God and administering the Sacraments. A new seminary building is being erected on the campus of Waterloo this year with money subscribed by Lutherans from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic.
