

001-1982
Richard K. Taylor
Jan. 6, 1982

For immediate release

COVERAGE INVITED

5 Liberal leadership candidates to speak on same platform at WLU

The five Liberals contesting the Ontario leadership of their party, to succeed Stuart Smith, will outline their platforms and answer questions Jan. 27 at Wilfrid Laurier University.

The meeting, free and open to the public, will be held at 7 p.m. in the main auditorium of the Frank C. Peters Building at University Avenue and Albert Street.

Speaking will be James Breithaupt, John Sweeney, David Peterson, Richard Thomas and the latest entrant, Sheila Cops. Moderator will be Richard K. Taylor, the university's information director.

The event is sponsored by the Laurier Liberal Association, headed by Bryan Stortz, a graduate history student.

It will be the first-time-the candidates for leadership of the Ontario Liberals have spoken in Kitchener-Waterloo.