Notes

This programme will be plentifully interspersed with music, both vocal and instrumental, provided by local and visiting artists. A song-sheet is distributed and the audience encouraged to join heartily in the singing.

Rooms in the Seminary building may be reserved by writing to the registrar of the Summer School, the Revd. E. Neudoerffer.

$1.00 will reserve accommodation for the period of the school. 50 cents will reserve a room for one night.

Board will be provided at $1.00 per day; or 35 cents per single meal.

Meals will be served as follows: Breakfast at 8.30, Dinner between 12-1; and Supper between 6-7.

The general registration fee is $1.00 and entitles the registrant to attend all sessions of the School. For those who desire to attend a single session the charge is 25 cents per lecture.

There will be plenty of opportunity for recreation and sport. The Revd. Howald will be in charge of sports. Tennis, baseball, quoits, etc. will be available for lovers of these sports.

Any information desired may be obtained from the Registrar, the Revd. E. Neudoerffer, Waterloo, or from any member of the Summer School Committee.
