providing each student with as much information at his fingertips as it is possible to do, as pertains to student activities and 'who's who' and 'what's what' around the College. Know your college well!

The Directory section is the most-often-used section in the book. Keep this book handy for organization references and dating purposes.

KEYSTONE

This is our year book. In it is summarized all the activities of the college year, to this are added many pictures, from the members of the graduation class to the candid campus shots. Treasure this publication for the many happy memories it will recall to mind of your sojourn at Waterloo College.

COLLEGE ORGANIZED ACTIVITIES

CANADIAN OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

1. The Canadian Officers' Training Corps offers undergraduates a unique opportunity to qualify themselves for a commission in the Canadian Army, either Active or Reserve, through the training programme especially designed to meet their requirements.

2. Students are eligible who are:

a) British subjects between the ages of 18 and 22; in the case of men who were on active service during the war 1939-45, these requirements may be varied to allow a higher age of entry.

b) Of a physical standard suitable for the Canadian Army, Active Force.

c) Following a course of study leading to a recognized degree.

3. The training provided falls into two categories:

a) Theoretical training - a 40-hour course of lectures on military subjects given during the academic year. (20 hours during the first year)