Cambridge residents win scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, Ont. (Jan. 24) — Two Cambridge residents have distinguished themselves by winning scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Bill Waddell of Main Street and Alistair Macleod of King Street W. will be among 50 students honored at an awards reception at 4 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 26.

Waddell, who is a student in Laurier's full-time MBA program, will be presented with the Canadian Hardware/Houseware/Home Improvement Show MBA Scholarship. Valued at $750, the award recognizes skill and aptitude in merchandising, marketing or retailing as well as a talent for innovation.

Waddell, who was a sales manager for Laidlaw Waste Systems Ltd. in Cambridge for five years, received his bachelor's degree from the University of Toronto in 1984.

Macleod, who is in the part-time MBA program, will receive the Ross V. Dixon Scholarship for Part-time MBA Students. Valued at $1,000, the award is presented to a student with a consistently high grade point average whose fees are not being covered by an employer.

Macleod, who is a math and science teacher with the Waterloo County board of education, received his bachelor's degree and teaching certificate from the University of Manchester in 1985 and 1986.
