Collingwood resident wins scholarship at WLU

Waterloo, Ont. (Jan. 24) — A Collingwood resident has distinguished himself by winning a scholarship at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Jeff Langlois of Ried Crescent will be among 50 students honored at an awards reception at 4 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 26.

Langlois, who is a student in Laurier's part-time MBA program, will be presented with the Roger Larsen Memorial Award. The $1,000 award is made to a part-time student who has completed at least six courses, including the required core courses, with a consistently high grade point average.

Langlois, who was a project manager for C.C. Tatham & Associates Ltd. of Collingwood for four years, received a bachelor of applied science degree in civil engineering from the University of Waterloo in 1990.
