Global warming is the topic of upcoming Laidlaw Lecture

Dr. F. Kenneth Hare, chancellor of Trent University and professor emeritus in geography of The University of Toronto, will be the speaker at a May 28 public lecture on environmental management at Wilfrid Laurier University.

Hare is a distinguished expert and scholar in climatology, environmental affairs and nuclear safety. The title of Hare's talk is Global Warming: A Broadening Issue.

The lecture will be held on Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the Maureen Forrester Recital Hall of the Aird Centre at WLU. It is open to everybody and a reception will follow. Admission is free.

The Laidlaw Lecture series are sponsored by a grant from Laidlaw, Inc.
