Laurier Summer Camp Fair lets families plan their summer in one evening

WATERLOO – Representatives from more than 40 summer camps and programs will host exhibits at Wilfrid Laurier University's 2011 Summer Camp Fair, giving parents one-stop access to summer camp options for their children. The fair takes place Tuesday, Feb. 22 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Laurier's Science Building courtyard.

"The fair gives parents and children a chance to meet representatives from many camps and ask questions about their programs in person," said organizer Rhea Edmunds. "We hope it will make it easier for families to choose the camp that's right for their children."

Camps with exhibits at the fair include day camps and overnight camps, with programs ranging from sports and arts to science and music.

Laurier also offers its own summer children's camps, including a number of sports camps and a camp with the Department of Psychology. Representatives from the Laurier camps will be in attendance at the fair.

For further information and to view the complete list of camps, visit www.wlu.ca/campfair or contact Rhea Edmunds at 519-884-0710 ext. 3902.
