Mrs. Gillespie presided for election of officers. All officers being elected as presented on Slate.

The meeting came to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer.

A Fellowship Dinner was served by the Ladies Aid of the church.

Mrs. C. Zarnke was chairman for the occasion.

Invocation was given by Sister Florence.

A musical program was provided by - 2 piano selections by Miss Joan Kadwell; 2 vocal selections by Ross McMillan accompanied by Patricia Kemp.

Mrs. C. H. Musselman introduced the guest speaker of the evening Mrs. A. Conrad. She spoke on the education in the home, public school, and church in Nova Scotia. She urged the setting up of a family altar to give the child early religious training. Responsibility for Sunday School teaching in Nova Scotia was being carried by teenagers, she said, and eight pastors were serving 30 Lutheran congregations. She was thanked by Miss Decima Zimmeramn.

Mrs. Gillespie introduced out next speaker Mr. Paul Vasarinsh. The importance of higher education to humanity was graphically told by Mr. Vasarinsh, a new canadian from Latvia. He was a student for $2\frac{1}{2}$ years in universities in Germany. He said sometimes 350 would cram into a room meant for about 150 students.

Frequently there was no glass in the windows of the lecture room, and plaster loosened by bombing would fall on the students. He was thanked by Miss Emma Schorten.

Mrs. Doerr closed the program of the evening by thanking all those who took part in the program. St. John's for use of the hall and to the Ladies Aid for catering for the dinner.

The Fellowship Dinner came to a close by singing "O Canada."

Respectfully submitted,

Aline Musselman
