other institutions. This training he hopes will be incorporated into the Natal Seminary curriculum .

The special offering, amounting to $283.00, was designated to support Pastor Msomi in his educational endeavors. Dr. D. Glebe informed us that Rev. Msomi has been unable to receive a salary from his parish because of Government regulations, so will be very thankful for the financial help. Anyone wishing to contribute further could make cheques payable to the Seminary - Attention Msomi Fund

A tribute to Mrs. Fred Stahlschmidt and Mrs. Charles Doerr, both past presidents of the Auxiliary who passed away in 1977, was read by Mrs. Walter Hachborn. Mrs. Stahlschmidt was the founder and first president of the Seminary Auxiliary in the year 1913. Her daughter, Mrs. Janet Bregman of Cambridge, was in the audience. Mrs. Charles Doerr served from 1953 to 1957. During the presentation, slides of the women were projected at the front of the hall.

Mrs. Harold Vogt paid tribute to Sister Florence Weiker, Deaconess of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Kitchener, who for many years gave of her time and talents to assist at the annual meetings of the auxiliary.

Invocation was given by Rev. Andrew Blackwell of St. Peters, Zurich.

Luncheon - 12:15 p.m. was held in the Ballroom. Contact women met in the lounge on the same floor right after lunch.

After the luncheon, at 2:00 p.m. Seminarian Anne Norman, who is a second year Seminary student with a Bachelor of Music Education degree, rendered an enjoyable variety program of viola music. Prior to performing, she carefully explained the instrument, the history of the composer and the various reasons why music sometimes will reach the soul when words fail. She was introduced by Mrs. Ernest Schaefer, and thanked by Mrs. D.Grant Moore.

The guest speaker, Miss Pamela McGee of Morrisburg, was introduced by Mrs. Clarence Heer and thanked by Mrs. Walter Hachborn. Rev. McGee, Canada's first female Lutheran minister, was ordained May 7, 1976. She spoke of the ministry from the female's point of view noting that she
