WINTER CARNIVAL QUEEN'S PAGEANT

COMING CLOSER FOR WLU

With Winter Carnival '66 approaching, students at Waterloo Lutheran University are counting the days until the snow queens from 20 universities arrive on campus.

The queens will arrive Wednesday afternoon, January 26, for an informal reception in Toronto at the Constellation Motor Hotel sponsored by the Imperial Tobacco Company. They will then depart for Waterloo and the festivities of the carnival.

Friday evening will see the snow queen pageant, with its climax of the crowning of Snow Queen '66 by last year's queen, Miss Wendy Crump.

Judges for the contest will be Billy Shipp, representing Toronto Argos and Seagram Distillers, Gail Cooke of Sarah Coventry Jewellery, Gerry Reidel of O'Keefe Breweries and Miss Tina Robertson, a free-lance model who is Miss Kitchener-Waterloo. A special mystery judge, a popular personality, will be announced later.
