DR. ULRICH LEUPOLD TO BE GUEST LECTURER

AT THEOLOGICAL CONFERENCES IN EUROPE

Dr. Ulrich S. Leupold, dean of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, will be one of five guest lecturers at a series of international theological conferences in England and Germany in July.

The conferences, under the auspices of the Lutheran World Federation, will be in Oxford (July 6-10), Hamburg (July 13-17), and West and East Berlin (July 20-24). Theme of the series will be "The Christian Church and Society".

Dr. Leupold is the only Canadian lecturer. Two are from Germany, one from Sweden and one from USA.

While in Germany Dr. Leupold will also attend the theologian commission of the Lutheran World Federation in Munich from July 29-August 3.

Dean of the seminary since 1945, Dr. Leupold is also professor of New Testament theology and church music. Before joining the seminary he was parish pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Kitchener, from 1939-42, and of Christ Lutheran Church, Maynooth, from 1942-45.
