CANADIAN LUNCHEON SET FOR

KANSAS CITY CONVENTION

The traditional Canadian luncheon for Canadian delegates and friends, held biennially at conventions of the Lutheran Church in America, has been set for Monday, June 27, at 12:15 noon at the Hotel President, Kansas City, Missouri.

The ICA convention will be held June 22-29 in the Kansas City Municipal Auditorium.

The luncheon, sponsored by Waterloo Lutheran University, will feature Canadian leaders as speakers, including Dr. C. Hugh Whitteker of Bridgewater, N.S., president of the Lutheran Church in America-Canada Section; Dr. Albert W. Lotz of Kitchener, president of Eastern Canada Synod; Dr. Otto A. Olson of Winnipeg, president of Central Canada Synod; and Dr. John M. Zimmerman of Edmonton, president of Western Canada Synod,

Arrangements for the event are being made by a committee headed by Dr. Henry Endress, vice-president of Waterloo Lutheran University.
