Basketball and Hockey Hawks To Play In Two Tournaments

HOCKEY: Waterloo Lutheran University basketball and hockey teams will be participants in two tournaments. The hockey Hawks and the University of Waterloo Warriors are co-hosts of the second Dominion Life Hockey tournament at the Waterloo Arena on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 24 and 25.

Other participants in the tournament include Carleton University and Lake Superior State College from Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

The tournament was last held two years ago when the team from Sir George Williams University of Montreal won the tourney.

In the opening game the Warriors play Lake Superior State College at 6:30 followed by the Golden Hawk-Carleton game at 9 p.m. The consolation and the final will be played Saturday evening with the losers from Friday night's game meeting in the consolation and the winners of the Friday games shooting for the tournament championship.

The hockey Hawks played their second game of the young Ontario Intercollegiate Athletic Association schedule on Wednesday evening against the University of Windsor Lancers. In their opening game of the league season the Hawks dumped the Osgoode Hall Owls 8-3 in Toronto.
