Acting President's Term Extended

As Search For Replacement Continues

Dr. Frank C. Peters, appointed president of Waterloo Lutheran University for a one-year term last July 1, will continue to serve while the selection committee of the university's board of governors seeks a permanent president.

He agreed to a one-year extension when the selection committee was unable to report on the selection of a permanent replacement for Dr. William J. Villaume, who resigned two years ago to head a proposed university for the Bahamas.

Dr. Peters hopes to return to full-time teaching and research within the university. He was an associate professor in WLU's psychology department when he agreed to assume the presidency on a temporary basis and still continues to teach one course in the psychology department.
