Dr. U.S. Leupold Confirmed
As Head of Lutheran Seminary

Dr. U.S. Leupold, dean of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary since 1945, has been confirmed in his position as head of the theological faculty of Waterloo Lutheran University.

He has been acting head of the seminary since the retirement last year of Dr. J. Ray Houser, who headed the seminary for 14 years in the role of principal. The position of dean will now be the senior office.

Full-time members of the faculty will assist Dr. Leupold in developing a team approach to administration of the seminary.

Dr. Leupold, a graduate of the University of Berlin, is an internationally known theologian and church musician and is professor of New Testament in the seminary. He has contributed articles to numerous learned publications.
