Members of Hair to Visit K-W.

Address Waterloo Lutheran Class

Several members of the cast of Hair, the tribal rock musical now nearing the end of its phenomenal run in Toronto will visit the Twin Cities Monday and Tuesday as guests of Waterloo Lutheran University's School of Religion and Culture.

The actors will spend Monday afternoon talking about their philosophy and their show, one of many versions of the musical playing in major cities around the world. Then they will attend a reception on campus with Prof. Robert Fisher and other members and students of the School of Religion and Culture.

On Tuesday, after spending the night on campus, the cast will speak to Dr. Fisher's class on contemporary religious issues. They then return to Toronto to prepare for another full house at the Royal Alexandra Theatre.

NOTE TO EDITORS: The Monday reception will be held in The President's House on campus (Centre Hall) at 8:30 p.m. You are cordially invited to attend or send representatives to meet the cast in a relaxed atmosphere.
