Economic Council to Hold

Seminar at WLU on Jan. 29

The first university-wide meeting of the Economic Council of Canada in Ontario will be held Jan. 29 in Waterloo under the sponsorship of Waterloo Lutheran University.

Economists from all over the province will take part in discussions related to the latest Annual Report prepared by the council.

In addition to Arthur J.R. Smith, chairman of the Economic Council, Dr. Sylvia Ostry, a director, and council research members R.D. Fraser and Walter Hettich will attend.

Academic speakers will include Prof. Leo Bakony, chairman of the department of economics, University of Victoria; Prof. David Stager, department of political economy, University of Toronto and Prof. John Madden from the department of economics, University of Guelph.

This year's council report consists of the seventh annual review together with a performance and potential report.
