

Heartbreak in final for U12 Mustangs

The Stouffville Mustangs under-12 boys' development team advanced to the final of the King City soccer tournament before suffering a heartbreaking 2-1 loss to Grimsby that was decided on penalty kicks.

Trailing 1-0, the Mustangs tied the game late in the first half on a goal by Alvin Mathew.

Buoyed by some strong goalkeeping from Daniel McKinley, the Mustangs remained in contention throughout the rest of regulation time as the score remained tied at 1-1.

With the final outcome to be determined by penalty kicks, both teams sent 12 players to the line before it was decided on the 24th shot taken by a Grimsby player to end the match.

To reach the final, the Mustangs defeated Unionville-Milliken 7-1 and tied Mooredale 3-3. In the semifinals, the Mustangs faced Mooredale for a second time and won 4-1.

Rhys Garlow and Sam Atanackovich played a strong game in the midfield area and Ben Partridge was solid on defence.

Also making big contributions were Liam

Comeau, Kirk Vogan, Luca Mortillaro and Jordan Pivato.

Free golf for youngsters

To help introduce more children to the game of golf, they can take to the Rolling Hills Golf Club's Challenge and Classic courses for free when accompanied by an adult, ClubLink announced Wednesday.

Anyone 18 years of age or younger can golf for free Monday through Friday until Aug. 31 when playing with a paying adult 19 years of age or older. The program also extends to junior guests of ClubLink members who are 19 or older. The offer is limited to one junior per paying adult or ClubLink member.

To launch the program, there will be a free junior instruction clinic hosted by PGA of Canada teaching professional Ben Gross at nearby Station Creek Golf Club Monday from 7 to 8 p.m. To register for the clinic, call 1-866- 801-5366.

Sear qualifies for provincials

Stouffville's Ben Sear has earned a berth in the Golf Association of Ontario Junior Boys Championship.

The 15-year-old Stouffville resident was one of 21 players to make the cut at a regional qualifying event at Bushwood Golf Club in Markham Tuesday.

A member of York Downs Golf and Country Club in Unionville, Sear shot a one-under-par 71 to finish in a three-way tie for second place. Finishing first was Sam McNulty, a Port Perry resident who golfs out of the Granite Golf Club in Stouffville, who had a two-under 70.

The GAO Junior Boys Championship will be played at the Mandarin Golf Club in Markham July 17 to 20.
