President's Message

Bob Gibson 926-2571

A good Christmas party wrapped up last year; now we are started on a new year with new resolutions. I hope all regular members resolved to paint more and paint better. New faces are appearing among our showing members and the competition to show will increase. The club is changing and will continue to change, of necessity, so we must continually strive to refine tasks and clarify policies, while finding new means to accomplish what we need to progress.

Education

Barbara Matthews 929-4691

Nancy Clayton, who is the gallery manager at the Federation of Canadian Artists will be the demonstrating artist for the February meeting. She will be demonstrating opaque watercolour.

Workshops

Lori Tjorhom 929-3945

We are pleased to have "one of our own" teaching an acrylic/watercolor workshop on Saturday, Feb. 3rd and Sunday the 4th at Klee Wyck. Barrie Chadwick is an active member of FCA where he exhibits in juried shows; he had been awarded a Member Group Show for 2001. Recently, his acrylic "Pemberton Valley" was exhibited at the international "Aim for Arts" exhibition. This workshop was filled up immediately at the January meeting. The next workshop is expected to be around the end of March or early April.

There are still some spots left on the duty roster. Please call Riita Peirone at 925-9100 if you can help us fill up the roster.

Reminder: Remember to sign in at every meeting as you need to attend 3 meetings to have your work juried. The next jurying is expected about the end of May.

SQUAMISH SHOW: (Squamish Library)

Sixteen paintings were delivered on Sunday December 17th and despite somewhat icy conditions on the road, all went well. The library had advertised the show in the gallery guide "Preview" magazine, and each artist had a bio in the binder for general viewing. One painting by Pat Early was sold and the general consensus and remarks were that the show was quite successful.
