

- ii. Postcards – as they are not available yet, Al has asked that members who need postcards come to see him. Printed postcards will be made available to those members who need them. Pick up at Jurying? Email will be sent with the electronic version of the postcard very soon.
 - iii. Next jurying session May 12 - 13 – forms will be in the next newsletter. Venue is the same as always, the church in Edgemont Village. The jurors are Mike Svob and Stuart Slind.
- b. Workshops – Frieda Ashworth – Sue Hetherington is doing a pastel workshop at the end of this month. There are spaces still available for this workshop and Frieda encouraged members to sign up so that the workshop can go ahead. The May workshop will be on the 26-28 by Edith Warner. It will be a mixed media workshop over three days.
- c. Financial – Richard Summers
- d. Education – Jacquie Manning
- e. Publicity – Gordon Davis
 - i. Heather Luccock is selling tickets for the Laudate concert and about 20 paintings from our club will be shown at this event.
 - ii. Gordon announced other members with shows and these details can be found in the newsletter.
 - iii. NV Arts Council is having their annual Arts in the Garden show and some of our members are participating - details in newsletter.
 - iv. Gordon reminded members to attend the Park Royal reception as a good time will be had by all.
- f. Vice-President – Edith Warner –
 - i. Edith reminded members to update their biographies so that our binder could be updated.
 - ii. Edith has brought examples of her work for members to see in anticipation of her upcoming workshop.
- g. Membership and Roster – Anne McMahon – 82 members tonight. There are two new members tonight and one guest. Anne is accepting payments for membership renewals tonight, as well as in May and June. Anne thanked members for looking at and filling in their names on the Job Board that she has created for next year's jobs.
- h. Past-President – Lorne Topham – absent.
- i. President – Larry Achtemichuk
 - i. Contact management
 - ii. Sketches reminder
- j. New Business
 - i. Larry announced that Ursula Vondette has brought more of her canvas carry bags to sell at break.
 - ii. Larry showed members an example of some of the pen and ink sketches for the West Van Yacht Club and encouraged other members to submit sketches to potentially become postcards for the yacht club
 - iii. A member asked about our contact list and the privacy of this list. Larry explained that members individual contact lists are private unless the member has chosen to share the names on this list with another member. Email addresses that are captured via the People's Choice Awards are put into the public portion of the contact list, unless the individual has asked that their information not be shared.

Meeting Adjourned.