B.C. FESTIVAL OF ARTS

North Shore entries to the "Images & Objects" Show of the B.C. Festival of the Arts in Saanich, May 23-27 were selected from 162 pieces entered which included watercolors, arts, acrylics, intaglio etchings, collage, pencil drawings, photographs, fabric art, ceramics, sculptures, jewellery and wood pieces. The two jurors, Kitty Mykka, instructor at Emily Carr College of Art & Design, and Gregory Bellerby, curator of the Charles H. Scott Gallery, had a difficult task to select the eight pieces to represent the North Shore at the Festival. The chosen entries become part of the Lower Mainland quota of twenty pieces. The final showing in Saanich on May 23-27 will be over 240 works
