

Tres Años

is the title of a collection of pictures Jordan Junck made during three years of traveling through Asia, Europe, and the Americas. "I never placed too much emphasis on the destination, and the journey has taken me through the exotic, the shocking, the generous and the spiritual," Junck says. He has photographed masks in Dublin (left), a seat in Veracruz (above) and street cleaners in India (right). His pictures are currently on show at A Piece of Cake, on the Esplanade just west of Lonsdale.
