UK Today: A New View

Going Down

Julie Henry

June 11 – July 31, 2005

Julie Henry's two-screen video work, Going Down, shows the avid fans at a Crystal Palace football (i.e. soccer) match in London. On two synchronized screens we see the result of cameras focused respectively on the home team spectators, and the visitors' spectators. See the elation and despondency on the faces as goals are scored.
