

More than any other artifact or object, the window is a reminder of the Library's origins as a memorial to our community's war casualties. When it has been restored to its station in the tower we trust that it will stand out more than ever as the centrepiece and pride of the Memorial Library building.

IN THE GALLERY

"Ocean Edges" ... a marine watercolour exhibition by West Vancouver artist Rosemary Schouw will be on display through the month of April.

Rosemary's studies have included architecture, architectural rendering, watercolour technique and design. She lives near the water, is an accomplished boater and paints from her studio on Gambier Island.

All paintings are for sale.

THERE'S A MAGIC IN THE DISTANCE ... where the sea line meets the sky ... cruise the Greek Islands, globe trot in an armchair or journey to the far far horizon. April is the month to plan a summer trek, a cruise in the fall, tour via rail in Europe or explore the canals of England. Your Library has Fodor's, Frommer's, Let's Go, Insight Michelin guides, travel pamphlets and much more in the travel section. Here are a few suggestions:

910.8 BARISH, Frances
BAR FROMMER'S A Guide for the Disabled Traveler: The United States, Canada & Europe
Written by an experienced wheelchair traveler for anyone who has a mobility problem, including wheelchair, crutches, cane or even pacemaker. Freedom to travel and how to take advantage of it ... an indispensable guide.

- 914.8 JAFFE, Dennis
JAF The Camper's Companion to Northern Europe
Fourteen countries are covered in great detail including trip planning, campgrounds, safety and security, canal trips, chateaux and vehicles and equipment. The authors have been camping in Europe since 1969.
- 915 STEVES, Rick
STE Asia Through the Back Door
To find adventures hidden from the average traveler ... India's best beach, skiing in China, ancient Japanese temples, Hallowe'en in a Malay village and guest houses in Indonesia. For tourists on a tight budget.
- 915.2 HOTTO, Anne
HOT A Guide to Japanese Hot Springs
Over 160 select hot springs from rock-lined river pools to mountaintop hot tubs. Do's and don'ts, accommodations for both high and low budgets and information on local delicacies, traditions and festivals. The ultimate Japanese experience.
- 917.8 HAWKINS, Karen
HAW Bicycle Training in the Western United States
Oceans, mountains and deserts all in one tour! Geography, weather, road conditions are covered state by state from Washington to New Mexico. Twenty-three complete tour routes with maps and all necessary details are provided. A wonderful way to see the contrasts of the country.
